ROUND 8 PREVIEW

Leongatha v Moe

Round 8 awaits as we near the turning point for the 2022 home and away season. The two top senior sides meet this weekend with Leongatha hosting Moe at Parrot Park. The Green and Gold are undefeated still this year despite being tested away at Maffra last weekend. The Lions have dropped just the one game at home to Sale and snuck over the line against Drouin last weekend thanks to a might final term comeback. Conditions are likely to play a factor in this game with the Lions featuring a lot of younger talent they will rely on good conditions to challenge the Parrots. Leongatha have proven they can adapt to any weather but they should be hard to beat through the winter months with their mature bodies on each line. Tom Marriott leads the MVP and looks set to be leading the Trood Award and Rodda medal so far. He has been a stand out over the past 6 weeks. The Lions have welcomed back veteran Tom Long with open arms. While experienced trio Jacob Wood, James Blaser and Scott Van Dyk continue to be among their key performers. Last season the Parrots got the win in a tight match over a red hot Moe with Kristian Jaksch bagging 8 in one of the most dominant Gippy League performances in recent memory. The Parrots arguably look stronger in 2022 and will be hoping to tick off the first of what looks to be many clashes in 2022 between these two sides. The netball is just as intriguing with second and third set to faceoff. The Lions and Parrots have only tasted defeat against Morwell so far in 2022 and look to be the next tier of challengers. Moe probably are a slight favorite due to their dominance over the opposition sides lower on the ladder so far. Leongatha have quality players all over the court with Hannah Flanders moving up in to second place in the MVP while shooting partner Jess Edgar sits in the top 3 shooters this season. They have been consistent and have a settled side. The match probably comes down to Higgins and Redpath chopping off the lobs to Taylin Gourley in goals. If they can pinch a few intercepts they have a chance to take that second place on the table.

Traralgon v Sale

Third and Fourth on the Senior ladder match up with Sale making the trip down the highway to Traralgon. The Magpies have bounced back after their shaky start and wins over Moe at Ted Summerton and a solid percentage booster over the dangerous Warragul side have them clear in third. The pair of Jacks have been magnificent in the past month with coach Jack Johnstone booting five in the win last weekend, while Jack Leslie should be well placed in Trood Award and Rodda medal voting with his standout matches in the ruck. The Maroons snatched a crucial win against Wonthaggi and got the job done over Bairnsdale. The Warragul hiccup looms large in their season still as they have beaten the Power and came within single figures of Leongatha. If their best are available and fit they look a lock for the top 5 and likely higher. Brett Eddy continues to provide a target and will kick another bag at some stage this season. They will be hoping that their young star Tye Hourigan is available. He has probably taken the mantle as their most valuable player with his ability to play in the ruck and really any position on the ground. Sale might be slight favorites but the Maroons will have their time in front and will be hoping that they can make sure that it is after 120 minutes. The Traralgon A Grade side has bounced back after their tough start to the season and is taking advantage of a good run in their draw. They play the bottom 3 sides from round 7-9 so should go into the half way point of the season in the five. Sale have had a tough run over the first third of the season and the Maroons will be a tough ask. Maddi Stockdale was best on court last week while defender Amy Harrison has been good over the past month. The Magpies will be relying on Tori Dessent to be competitive against the Maroon's mid court while Tegan Harrison looks their main avenue to shooting a winning score. Traralgon to win comfortably.

Wonthaggi Power v Bairnsdale

The Distance Derby is on and Wonthaggi are thankful that they drew the home fixture after two weeks on the road. The Power are in desperate need of four points in the seniors and they wont get a better chance then the bottom placed Red Legs on the longest road trip in the League. Wonthaggi have dropped games to Morwell and Traralgon over the past two weeks along with their draw to bottom 3 side Warragul, has them clinging onto fifth place. At their best they look like a Grand Final side but they have shown that they can be beaten around the ball and are lacking some polish that the top sides display going forward. They kicked themselves out of a win last week and need to respond. Bairnsdale faced a similar story with a competitive 3 quarters that slipped away. They have shown that they can play but struggle to match it over 4 full quarters of senior football. Coach Logan Austin has been great on the field and young gun Randall Stewart will be one that they will hope to keep in future years. Wonthaggi should win and need to win well to keep their season going. In the netball it is another tough ask for the Red Legs. They have a go and look like a team that would enjoy being on the road together. Wonthaggi are a solid senior team and will likely be a finals side in 2022. They are coming off two losses against the strong Valley sides and will need to get the job done here to solidify the finals spot.

Morwell v Drouin

The Tigers welcome the Hawks with the Tigers only two pints out of the five. Last weekends shock win over the Power has them in touch with the Maroons and Wonthaggi for those minor finals positions. Few would have thought they would have performed like this in 2022 but with single figure wins over the Red Legs, Power and a home victory over the Gulls has them at 3-4 with 9th placed Drouin this week. The Hawks are a mystery team with heavy defeats surrounded by competitive performances against top sides. They almost pulled off the win of the year last weekend against Moe but faded out in the final term. They sit 9th with one win at 56% but have challenged both Moe and Sale this year. Tim Hancock looks set to be in the team of the year squad again while Aden Quirk has been a welcome addition for the Maroon and Gold. Morwell should win and are a competitive team at home. No result would surprise from this game. In the netball we have the top of the table Tigers taking on fourth placed Drouin. The Hawks suffered a heavy defeat to Moe and while being in fourth look to be a tier behind the top 3. Morwell are easily the favorites so far to be there late September and will be odds on to take away their 8th win in a row. Shannon Freeman has been the recruit of the year, slipping into a premiership defence and adding so much to their team. Saskia Eenjes has been another vital recruit playing either on the wings or slipping into goals when needed she has given the Tigers the best versatility in the League. Morwell to win and keep their streak going. Drouin will be more than competitive in patches but over four quarters the Tiger's should be too good.

Warragul v Maffra

The final match of the round is the two red and black teams lining up in Warragul. It's been a tough draw for the Gulls with Leongatha and Sale back to back. Now they meet the 2019 premiers Maffra in a crucial match for both teams. The Eagles have been solid this year and will be hoping they can replace Wonthaggi in the five at seasons end. They look the best of the bottom six and as shown last week can match it with any team. Warragul have been up and down this year but are coming from tenth place so are probably ahead of expectations. Wins over Traralgon and a draw to Wonthaggi sandwiched in with heavy losses to Drouin and Morwell see then sit in 8th place coming into this week. Jed Lamb has been excellent up forward but is probably needed through the middle to help Nick Graham. Sean Masterson has been a star and looks a lock for team of the year. Was swung forward last week and gave the Gulls a great target which could be a trick used again. The Eagles should be too strong around the ball but their defence has dropped off from previous years and that gives the Gulls potent forwards a chance to kick a winning score, especially at home. Maffra will be slight favorites but all results are on the table. In the netball it is a crucial game for the Gulls. The Eagles sit 8th but have been improving over recent weeks. Warragul are a mixed bag this year with their best being very good. They have used the most shooting combinations, probably in Gippsland League history, over the first 7 weeks with no less than 9 shooters used in combination with Jaime Rollinson who has played in every match. They will need to sort out their player availability if they are to get on a run and challenge for finals. They should have enough senior talent to get the win this weekend and with Bairnsdale next week it gives them a great chance to go into the turning point at 4-5.

5 YEARS AGO 10th June 2017

The first drawn match between arch rivals Morwell and Traralgon for 52 years was the highlight of the day. Traralgon led narrowly at every break, although Morwell hit the lead briefly in the final term. A Jackson McMahon goal regained the ascendancy for the Maroons before a late behind saw the game tied at the final siren. Tim Northe (Traralgon) and Jack Brown (Morwell) were named as best for their respective teams. Leongatha, led by a best field performance from Aaron Hillberg, was too strong for Warragul. Bairnsdale won by a similar margin against Sale, Damian Cupido starring up forward for the Redlegs with six goals. Maffra burst out of the blocks with 9.6 to a goal in the first quarter against Drouin. Moe came from the clouds to overrun Wonthaggi. The Lions kicked just four goals to three quarter time, yet stormed home with seven majors in the final term. Daniel Risol and James Blaser leading the way for Moe. Byron Dryden had done a great job in leading the Power's defence to that stage.

10 YEARS AGO 9th June 2012

"Aker Fever" hit town with former Brisbane premiers player Jason Akermanis lining up for Morwell against Traralgon on Queen's Birthday Monday. A huge crowd saw Morwell jump Traralgon with six first quarter goals. The Maroons pegged back the 25 point quarter time deficit with just two goals separating the two at the final break. The Maroons got to within a goal, but the Tigers steadied with the final two goals of the match to win by 17 points. Leongatha kept its unbeaten record intact with a big win over Moe, Bairnsdale climbed off the bottom of the ladder, beating Drouin by 38 points and Sale kept Warragul to one goal after quarter time. At Maffra one quarter, the second, decided the match. The Eagles led narrowly at the first break, but blew the game apart in the second with 7.6 to 1.2. Adrian Burgiel (5 goals) and Daniel Stubbe (4) provided ideal focal points for Maffra. Wonthaggi won both the third and final quarters, two goals to one in each, but Maffra won by 37 points.

20 YEARS AGO 1st June 2002

The top three sides, Maffra, Moe and Wonthaggi, cruised to comfortable victories. In the Battle of the Birds Maffra got away to a good start, then built upon the lead in each quarter, running out winners over Sale by 86 points. Justin BRamich (5 goals) and Gary Jones (4) combined well for the Eagles. Traralgon was still in touch with Moe at half time before the Lions kicked eight goals to three in the second half. Brett Membrey and Brad Cook controlled the midfield with nine players sharing the goals. Wonthaggi was too strong for Leongatha, winning by exactly 100 points. The Blues led comfortably at half time, then added a further fifteen goals in the second half. Nick Garnham kicked seven goals for Wonthaggi.

Ladder: Maffra 28, Moe 24, Wonthaggi 20, Sale 12, Traralgon 8, Leongatha 4, Morwell 0.

30 YEARS AGO 30th May 1992

The match of the day was at Morwell where the Tigers held off a never-say-die Moe side. Morwell gained a 25 point lead at half time and looked to have the game in hand. The Lions fought back hard in the second half to match it with Morwell, the final margin the same as at the long break. In a goal fest that saw 35 goals kicked, spearheads Dean Caldwell (Morwell) (6 goals) and Ken Rainsford (Moe)(7) starred for their teams. West Australian recruit Brett Henderson led Sale to a comfortable win over Bairnsdale, the Magpies putting their stamp on the game with a quarter time scoreline of 5.9.39 to 0.1.1. Traralgon's unbeaten record looked to be threatened when Warragul led by eleven points at half time. Greg Morley led a third quarter charge from the Maroons that yielded eight goals and took them to their huddle with a 22 point lead. Leongatha put the result of their game beyond doubt when they slammed on ten goals in the second term against Churchill. Cameron Brown was best afield with seven goals.

PAST ROUND 8s

40 YEARS AGO 29th May 1982

Ladder leaders Leongatha and Morwell made big statements with big wins over their opponents. Top side Leongatha more than doubled fourth placed Traralgon's score. The Parrots led by three goals at half time, then put the foot down to run out 57 point winners with Paul Heppell starring with five goals.

Morwell didn't give Maffra a look in with quarters of 7, 8, 7 and 9 goals, Allan Lowe the major goalkicker with eight goals. Sale won a high scoring clash with Moe, the teams combining for 36 goals. Steve Clavarino was Sale's best player with Richard Coulthard (6 goals) and Gary Notman (5) leading the way for the Magpies. Newborough led Warragul until midway through the final quarter in what looked to be the upset of the season. The Gulls suddenly clicked and rattled on six goals in almost as many minutes to steal the game from the Bulldogs. Michael Vick starred for Warragul with seven goals. Bairnsdale and Yallourn/Yallourn North put on an entertaining display. Tied at 5.2 apiece at quarter time, the Redlegs took a hold on the game with seven second quarter goals to take a four goal lead in at half time. Mick Kane and Russell White scored five goals apiece for Bairnsdale who kept the Blues at bay.

50 YEARS AGO 3rd June 1972

The top of the table clash at Traralgon drew a huge crowd. The teams didn't disappoint as they kicked five goals each in the opening term. From here on Moe took charge, opening up a 21 point lead at half time. The Rowlings brothers, Brian and Barry, dominated the midfield as the Lions put the game to bed with a further six goals to one on their way to a 69 point victory. Superstar full forward Ian Jennings was unstoppable with ten goals. Sale took top spot on the ladder with a comfortable win over Leongatha, Wayne Morris and Terry Wynd leading the way for the Magpies. Incredible accuracy (24.8.152) marked Morwell's big win over Bairnsdale, coach Fred Swift leading from the front. Yallourn came home with four goals to one to steal the points from Heyfield, the Blues squeaking in by four points. Phil Truslove was the best for the Blues with Brian Robinson prominent up forward with five goals. Gerry Lynn and Eric Deppeler (5 goals) led Warragul in an entertaining clash with Maffra, the Gulls coming from a two point deficit in the final term to win by thirteen points. Barry Marsden had a day out for the Eagles with six goals.

Moe 3. 8. 26
2021 (L) Leongatha 13. 8. 86 d Moe 13. 3. 81

Present winning sequence: Leongatha 3

Match Aggregate High: 312 pts (1997) Leongatha 37.23.245 d Moe 10. 7. 67

Match Aggregate Low: 69 pts (2008) Moe 5. 6. 36 d Leongatha 4. 9. 33

Highest scores: Leongatha 42.22.274 (1997), Moe 20.15.135 (1993)

Lowest scores: Leongatha 1. 4. 10 (2006), Moe 2. 1. 13 (1996)

Greatest winning margin: Leongatha 247 (1997), Moe 91 (2006)

Most goals (match): Leongatha 19 Adrian Campbell (1997)
Moe 10 Ian Jennings (1969)

Notes: Leongatha is firmly entrenched with flag favouritism for this season and teams visiting Parrot Park will have their work cut out for them. Moe hasn't won at Leongatha since 2009 and, since late 2010, the Lions have won just once in their last 21 games against the Parrots. That said, there have been a few very closely fought out games in recent years where Moe, with a little luck, could have improved that record. Their last meeting at today's venue saw Leongatha 16 points down at half time before recovering to win by five points.

Morwell v. Drouin

(1933–40 (CGFL), 1960–64, 2005–2021)

All matches: Played 56 Morwell 36, Drouin 19, drawn 1
At Morwell: Played 28 Morwell 20, Drouin 8

Last three matches: 2019 (M) Drouin 13.15. 93 d Morwell 10.15. 75
2019 (D) Drouin 3. 8. 26 d Morwell 2. 3. 15
2021 (D) Drouin 7. 6. 48 d Morwell 5. 8. 38

Present winning sequence: Drouin 4

Match Aggregate High: 278 pts (2006) Morwell 34.16.220 d Drouin
9. 4. 58

Match Aggregate Low: 41 pts (2019) Drouin 3. 8. 26 d Morwell 2. 3. 15

Highest scores: Morwell 34.16.220 (2006), Drouin 18.14.122 (2011)

Lowest scores: Morwell 2. 3. 15 (2019), Drouin 0. 1. 1 (2014)

Greatest winning margin: Morwell 187 (2014), Drouin 76 (2011)

Most goals (match): Morwell 16 Robert Bawden (1937)
Drouin 6 Chris Dunne (2010 1st Semi)

Notes: Drouin is renowned for being several goals better on their home turf than they are on the road, however their recent form at today's venue suggests that this is a happy hunting ground for the Hawks too. Drouin has won at Morwell on four of the last five occasions that they have travelled there. While both teams are in rebuilding stages opportunities such as their meeting today become important chances in their development. Fans can expect a tough, yet exciting match with scores close throughout.

Traralgon v. Sale

(1914–1935 (GFL), 1954–2019)

All matches: Played 222 Traralgon 117, Sale 102, drawn 3
At Traralgon: Played 99 Traralgon 61, Sale 36, drawn 2

Last ten matches: Traralgon 5, Sale 5
Last win at Traralgon: Traralgon 2019, Sale 2018
Last 5 years at Traralgon: Traralgon 4, Sale 1
(2015–2019)

Last three matches: 2019 (S) Sale 13.14. 92 d Traralgon 6. 6. 42
2019 (T) Traralgon 12. 1. 73 d Sale 9.14. 68
2021 (S) Sale 10.17. 77 d Traralgon 8.11. 59

Present winning sequence: Sale 1

Match Aggregate High: 266 pts (1979) Traralgon 23.11.149 d Sale
18. 9.117

Match Aggregate Low: 51 pts (1921) Traralgon 3. 9. 27 d Sale 3. 6. 24

Highest scores: Traralgon 29.15.189 (1994), Sale 23.17.155 (1931)

Lowest scores: Traralgon 1.10. 16 (1959), Sale 1. 5. 11 (1968)

Greatest winning margin: Traralgon 161 (1994), Sale 83 (1934)

Most goals (match): Traralgon 12 Paul McCulloch (1994)
Sale 10 Doug Orr (1931)

Notes: The last time these teams met at the Traralgon Showgrounds was in Round 13, 2019 and the Maroons put on a remarkable display of straight kicking for goal. They won by five points despite having just 13 scoring shots in comparison to Sale's 23, Traralgon's three quarter time score sat at an almost unbelievable 11.0.66. These teams seem destined for a battle amongst the top five this year and today's result may well be looked back upon as a deciding factor in what rung each will sit when the dust settles on the Home and Away season.

Warragul v. Maffra

(1960–1999, 2005–2021)

All matches: Played 114 Warragul 57, Maffra 57
At Warragul: Played 54 Warragul 33, Maffra 21

Last ten matches: Warragul 3, Maffra 7
Last win at Warragul: Warragul 2018, Maffra 2019
Last 5 years at Warragul: Warragul 3, Maffra 2
(2015–2019)

2021 (M) Maffra 11. 6. 72 d Warragul 5. 7. 37

ROUND 8 STATISTICS

Present winning sequence: Maffra 3

Match Aggregate High: 248 pts (1971) Maffra 18.17.125 d Warragul 18.15.123

248 pts (1998) Maffra 22.15.147 d Warragul 14.17.101

Match Aggregate Low: 67 pts (1966) Warragul 5.11.41 d Maffra 3. 8. 26

Highest scores: Warragul 29.20.194 (1978), Maffra 33.16.214 (2010)

Lowest scores: Warragul 1. 3. 9 (2010), Maffra 3. 3. 21 (1966)

Greatest winning margin: Warragul 155 (1978), Maffra 184 (2010)

Most goals (match): Warragul 12 Jim McGrath (1960)

Maffra 11 Adrian Burgiel (2007)

Notes: While Warragul has struggled with their trips to the three eastern grounds in recent years, their record at home against Bairnsdale, Sale and Maffra is far more impressive. The Gulls have beaten today's opponent, Maffra, on three of the last four occasions that they have clashed at Western Park. Warragul is certainly a strengthened outfit this year and their home ground draw with Wonthaggi and their win over Traralgon show that there is blue sky ahead for the Gulls and they'll strive today to add the Eagles' scalp to their belt.

Wonthaggi v. Bairnsdale

(1995–1998, 2011–2021)

All matches: Played 27 Wonthaggi 21, Bairnsdale 6
At Wonthaggi: Played 14 Wonthaggi 11, Bairnsdale 3

Last ten matches: Wonthaggi 8, Bairnsdale 2

Last win at Wonthaggi: Wonthaggi 2021, Bairnsdale 2018

Last 5 years at Wonthaggi: Wonthaggi 4, Bairnsdale 1

Last three matches: 2019 (W) Wonthaggi 10.12.72 d Bairnsdale 6.10.46
2019 (B) Wonthaggi 10.10.70 d Bairnsdale 8.14.62
2021 (w) Wonthaggi 19.13.127 d Bairnsdale 4.12.36

Present winning sequence: Wonthaggi 3

Match Aggregate High: 249 pts (1995) Bairnsdale 22.10.142 d Wonthaggi 16.11.107

Match Aggregate Low: 85 pts (1996) Wonthaggi 8. 7. 55 d Bairnsdale 3.12.30

Highest scores: Wonthaggi 26.22.178 (1998), Bairnsdale 22.10.142 (1995)

Lowest scores: Wonthaggi 4. 7. 31 & 3.13.31 (2018), Bairnsdale 1. 5. 11 (1998)

Greatest winning margin: Wonthaggi 167 (1998), Bairnsdale 89 (1995)

Most goals (match): Wonthaggi 12 Darren Wheildon (1998)

Bairnsdale 7 James Gibbs (2013)

Notes: The league's "road trip" match takes place today at Wonthaggi where the Bairnsdale Redlegs travel to do battle. Wonthaggi has had the better of Bairnsdale in recent years, winning ten of their last twelve games, although it may surprise some Gippsland League fans to know that two of Bairnsdale's last three wins over the Power have been achieved at Wonthaggi. The Power will be warmly favoured to win this afternoon as Bairnsdale slowly gets its best line-up back together from illness and injury.

LEONGATHA

The LFNC travelled up to enemy territory to face the Maffra Eagles last weekend in the battle of the birds as the parrots took down the eagles in both A Grade and Seniors. The weather gods were good to us all with a perfect day at Maffra no wind and the sun was shining.

The Seniors had a 20-point win against Maffra in a bit of an arm wrestle but the parrots always had control of the game. Tom Marriott and Aaron Heppell were influential in the midfield again with the absence of Luke Bowman. Matt Wilcocks and Jackson Harry held the fort down back for the parrots and up the other end Jack Ginnane kicking 3 goals. The reserves were trailing at stages in the 2nd quarter but came back and won by 30 points in the end. Luther Juric and Jacob Lamers got a crack through the middle and wings found some form starting the parrots forward surges. Levi Hickey and Rick O'Loughlin were strong down back for the parrots and down the other end Lachie Wright, Kyle Materia and Rhett Kelly were the multiple goal kickers for the parrots.

The Netball teams had a fantastic day out against Maffra with a few wins and losses. It all started with the Under 13s winning by 3 goals with Anna Hutchinson, Wil Reynolds and Eamon Reardon getting the awards. The Under 15s came a draw with Maffra with Lara Gill and Lucy Heber in the bests. The Under 17s won by 5 points with Molly Herber and Katie Harris in the bests. C grade just lost in a close 2 point game with Belle Grabham Andrews, Ash Willis and Makenzi Gourlay in the bests. B Grade continued their underfed start with an 8 goal win with Zali Rogers, Alicia Marshman and Zali Rogers receiving awards. A grade won 37 to 54, Jess Egar, Hannah Flanders and Laura Higgins in the bests.

It was a tough day for both junior football teams came up against two strong Maffra sides. The Under 18s lost by 63 points with Will Dawson, Cooper Rickard, Trent McRae, Nathan Skewes and Ty Hall in the bests. In the Under 16s the bests were Zavier Lamers, Julian Callahan, Hunter Funnell, Campbell Reid, Jhett Brown and Max Sheahan in a 40 point loss.

The Leongatha Football Netball Club welcome the Moe Lions to Parrot Park for a top of the table clash in the seniors. Moe have only lost one game this season and face off against the undefeated parrots. In A grade Netball both sides have one loss this season both coming to Morwell earlier this year and percentage only splitting the two teams on the ladder the parrots will be looking to get one up on the Lions. This year marks 40 years from when the 1982 Senior Football team won the grand final and the club would like to welcome all part premierships players back to the club today and hopefully the boys can get a win for the 1982 team that will be in attendance.

MOE

TODAY we make the trip over the hill to play Leongatha.

While last week's election only gave further proof to how safe the seat of Gippsland is, it would appear no one is safe in the Gippsland League, as there is at least one surprise result or margin coming to hand each week.

The seniors survived a huge scare last week against Drouin. Down by 18 points at the last change, Moe dug deep to pull it out of the bag and win by 10 points. Matt Barrand kicked four goals to be among the best, along with Bailey Humphrey, Riley Baldi, Scott Van Dyk, James Blaser and Ben Daniher.

Reserves led from start to finish to record a 49-point victory. The country getting a new Prime Minister took a back seat as the second biggest news story of the day after Jake Stanlake slotted two very nice set shots. Lucas Fry was best on ground, followed by Luke Mackay, John Chessells, Riley Taws and Will Luke.

The Thirds are in the midst of an incredibly even season, with their match last weekend being their fourth in succession decided by less than a goal. On this occasion Moe couldn't quite get in front at the final siren, going down by four points. Best players were Lachlan McGrath, Jaryn Makepeace, Brayden Jeffs, Tom Blackshaw, Will Robinson and Dustin Blackshaw.

Fourths got back on the winners list in a victory that was very timely. Moe got going after a slow start to eventually win by 53-points. Lachlan Wallace, Nathan Giardina, James Pace, Zach Daley, Jordan Shields and Haydn Edwards collected the plaudits for best on ground.

Netball action saw A Grade record an important win in the context of its season. Facing a good litmus test against Drouin, the Lions completed a 61-34 victory with Laini Galea best on court.

B Grade won a competitive game and were able to break away in the finish with the final scoreboard reading 49-38. Carly Wood played well and was adjudged the team's best player.

C Grade lost a hard fought match that went right down to the wire, as just three goals separated the teams when full time was called. Lacey Pedersen put in a good performance to be given the nod as best on.

Junior netball returned wins in two of the three grades.

The 15s and 13s both won, with the former getting up 30-9 and the latter 20-8.

Riley Donnelly and Mia Taylor were prominent players in the 15s, while Virginia Daley and Chloe Van Den Dolder did well in the 13s.

The Under 17s went down, but Hayley Koot and Tarnia Kelly put in honest efforts.

MORWELL

Round 6 Recap

In round 7 we took on Wonthaggi in better than perfect weather for the middle of May. Our teams fared well with 5 out of the 10 notching up wins and taking the premierships points.

Football

Our Seniors and Thirds had a tough day on the ground against skilled oppositions. The Thirds 2nd & 3rd quarter efforts putting on 3 goals respectively set them up for a 20-point win. The seniors maintained a steady ship throughout the 4 quarters and on the siren saw Wonthaggi kick a point and allow our boys to celebrate with the win in what was a hard-fought game by both teams. See full football results on page 8.

Netball

Success came along in round 7 for many of our netball teams with convincing wins in A, B and C Grade. Our A-Grade team held off a skilled and tough Wonthaggi unit that pushed them in each quarter and now are 7 from 7 sitting top of the table. All results can be found on Page 48 of the Gippsland League Record.

Social Events and News

The Frat Party after our round 7 games was a huge success, thanks to our social committee who once again went over and above to pull it off and to all that came along we hope it was yet again a great Tigers social night.

Our next event is the Mid-season Ball and tickets will be on sale soon, so keep an eye open via our social media posts for this one. You can also find all of our social event tickets via the website www.morwellfnc.com.au/events

DROUIN

Last week we hosted Moe in a mixed bag of results. Our seniors took the game right up to second placed Lions who ended up winning by 10 points in a hard fought contest. We lead for most of the game. Again the Lions maturity when the game got tight was the difference. It is pleasing how our young players are improving week by week. We look forward to playing an improving Morwell this week.

Round 7 senior best players awards were : At Realty – Tim Hancock, Middels – Aden Quirk, Family Hotel – Tom Johnstone, Kim’s Kitchen – Zane Atkins, Underground Barber – Jacob Konstanty and Burger and Co – Jarrod Marshall.

Our Reserves were depleted by illness but we thank those players who filled in against Moe. We could not match the depth of the Lions but as always the boys fought out the game. Award winners were: Hawks Club Award – Kaleb Hermansen, Select Office – Charlie Wans, Thai Massage – Mitchell Diston, Middels Award – Benny Lucas, Family Hotel – William Rumble and Community Bank – Sam Mowbray.

Our Under 18s won a really good quality game by 4 points – they fought back well after another slow start. They are a talented combination and have showed that they can match it with the best teams. Our boys will look forward to playing well against Morwell today to hopefully have two wins in a row. Award winners were: Saddington – Aaron Mitchell, Inter Sport – Thomas Young, Community Bank – Ethan Nalder, Community Bank – Eli Bracken, DFC Meal – Cam Caddy and Burger Lounge – Trent Fritzlauff.

Our Under 16s were also depleted by illness missing several key players. They struggled against a strong Moe outfit. They battled hard and will look forward today to getting back on the winners list with a win against the Tigers. Award winners were: Select Office – Zac McMillan; Drouin Golf – Will Young; Shane Caddy – Fletcher Lockwood; Community Bank – Charlie Piner; Community Bank – Tyler Harkin; Inter Sport – Will Bethune.

Our Family Hotel Club person of the week is our Reserves team manager Chris Taylor. This is a very challenging role and Chris does it well. He makes great contribution to our club each week. Thanks, Chris.

Drouin vs Moe R7

A Grade Drouin 34 Moe 61

Drouin played an excellent first half however once Moe gained momentum in the 3rd quarter, there was little Drouin could do to restrict their scoring.

Awards: Kym Diston (Drouin Family Hotel) Stacie Gardiner (Drouin Gourmet Cafe)

B Grade Drouin 38 Moe 49

B grade did all they could to challenge Moe, but in the end, you just can't grow overnight! Welcome back Liv Konstanty who will be an asset for the team.

Awards: Tess Mapleson (Drouin Family Hotel) Ali Henderson (Middels)

C Grade Drouin 34 Moe 30

It was the Hawks's spirit which got them the 4 points in a nailbiter. Kate Butler will add invaluable experience to the team.

Awards: Emily Bethune (Take Control Injuries & Health) and Kate Butler (Drouin Family Hotel)

17 & Under Drouin 33 Moe 17

The girls aim for the game was pressure on and from the first whistle the whole team did this, causing many turnovers and then converting these into goals.

Awards: Allanah Jagoe and Holly Cheyne (Drouin Gourmet Café) Amy Navas (Rod McLeish Insurance)

15 & Under Drouin 9 Moe 30

With sickness hitting the girls hard, we tried some fresh combinations which have future potential.

Awards: Jamieson Thomas (MP Talent), Kaylee and Tayla (Domino's)

13 & Under Drouin 8 Moe 20

Drouin worked hard to keep themselves in the game and should be pleased with their efforts.

Awards: Dillon Jagoe (Ray White Drouin) Amber (McDonald's)

TRARALGON

Today we welcome the Sale FNC to our home ground for our second home game for the season. Playing Sale has special significance to both clubs where we play for the Peter Hug Cup. Peter Hug was a much loved footballer and person who passed away while playing against Traralgon in 1999. Even though it is 23 years since his passing it is still very raw for both clubs and adds special significance to the day and makes us all appreciate life and the joy that sport brings us.

Today we host our sponsors and life member's day with a meal and special guest speaker Dustin Fletcher. Today will be a chance to thank our loyal and long term sponsors for backing TFNC in the past two years while there were so many interruptions to our lives and to our ability to play games. Without this support we would not be in a position to get through not only COVID-19 restrictions but also the flood which has ripped apart our ability to have normal canteens and change facilities. Our life members are also a special part of our club who have given up significant time over their lifetime to make our club what it is today. We look forward to many stories throughout the day.

We will have another attempt at running our canteen through the Latrobe City caravan and look at improving how we did things at our first attempt. The caravan will have pies, pasties, sausage rolls, salad rolls, lollies and drinks with coffees available from the caravan but made inside the social rooms and we will again have our 'Fresh Food Truck' on site and selling some tasty treats.

Today looks like an extremely close encounter in all grades of netball and football, especially in the junior netball where both clubs have great junior programmes.

Tonight we will look to celebrate a successful day listening to a few tunes from the beat box and really just enjoying each other's company.

Harley Raffle tickets are now available for sale both online, at the club and through our players. Special thanks to Traralgon Harley Davidson for their continued generosity and support. It is really important that we get behind this raffle and make it the success it should be.

GO MAROONS!

SALE

Was lovely to see some familiar faces getting around at the PAST PLAYERS REUNION on Saturday just gone. Matt Ferguson 2012 premiership coach spoke very well at the function highlighting the 2012 Senior year that was, a big thank you to Barry Jared and committee on hosting another successful past player's function.

What a great Round 7 clash against Warragul at home at the NEST, with Sale coming away with 7 wins from the 10 games played.

16s went down by 74 points, u18s had a nice 12-point win, consistency is the key with these boys, keep up the good work.

Our 2s this week were unlucky going down by 6 points, kicking accuracy probably let us down in the end, keep your heads-up boys, and get to training.

1s had a great 61-point victory over a well recruited Warragul side, with coach Jack Johnstone kicking 5, the 1s are coming off 5 in a row, playing some good solid football, with great structures in place on / off the bench this week they won't be taking Traralgon lightly.

13s started the day off on the right foot beating Warragul 45 to 7, 15s another stellar victory, playing some very smart transition netball coming home with an 87-goal victory. The u17s had another comfortable win over Warragul by 45 goals, the best test for our juniors will be this week taking on ladder leaders in Traralgon.

Another C Grade victory, comfortably winning by 10 goals, B Grade had an absolute nail biter win by 1 goal, the girls held their cool and remained calm under pressure & got the 4 points in the end. A Grade went down by 19 goals, it wasn't all Warragul's way we just couldn't convert our scoring shots.

Rd 7 Wood Raffle winner was Isla McCarthy.

This week we travel to the Traralgon Football Netball Club, we look forward to 10 stellar games on the court / field.

MAFFRA

Last weekend saw our footballers split the points against Leongatha, with two wins from four starts at home and the Netballers had a tough day with one win and a tie for the day.

Football

U16: The U16s continued their fine start to the season in Round 7, with a 40-point win against Leongatha. After the Parrots got the jump early, the Eagles reigned in the deficit to establish a three-goal lead by half time. A strong final term saw us run away with a 10.13.73 to 5.3.33 win. Best players were; Thomas Scott, Brodie Tohara, Zachary O'Keefe, Jack Dowsett, Fletcher McBean and Max Stobie, while Jayke Andrews (3 goals), Harry Burgiel (2), Tohara (2) and Stobie (2) were the side's multiple goal-kickers.

The U16s remain undefeated with a tantalising match-up set for Round 8 against Warragul, who sit third on the ladder. While Maffra has two more wins to its name, the teams are very evenly matched, possessing a 'points-for-points-against' ledger of 512-207 (Maffra) to 499-199 (Warragul). Go well boys!

U18: Buoyed by the return of Gippsland Power representatives Jonti Schuback and Max Knobel, the Eagles' posted a resounding win at home last weekend – 15.10.100 to Leongatha's 4.3.27. Better players included Zach Felsbourg, Lachlan Allman, Schuback, Bayden Dowsett, Brodie Johnson and Ben Missen while the goals were spread between Brodie Johnson (4), Bailey Carubia (3), Felsbourg (2), Kain Brady (2), Schuback (2) and Missen (1).

Following their 7th win of the season, the Maffra U18s sit two games clear atop the Gippsland League ladder with a hearty percentage of 213.40%. The challenge will come over the next two weeks when they face Warragul (away) then Traralgon (at home) who sit 3rd and 2nd on the ladder respectively leading into Round 8.

Reserves: In perfect Autumn conditions, the Eagles Reserves fought an entertaining match against a formidable opponent in Leongatha. Despite leading at half time, and remaining well and truly in the match at the final break, our Reserves couldn't quite hold on as they succumbed to Parrots 7.6.48 to 11.9.75 in a scoreline that flattered the visitors. Best players for Maffra included Jessie Oldham, who also lead the goal-kickers with three majors, Bill Fleming, Kai Killoran, Jordan Stubbe (two goals), Josh Stubbe and Ari Fleming.

Our Reserves maintain the 2nd best offense and 2nd best defence in the competition as they face another challenge this week against Warragul. We wish Will Brunt the best as he recovers from a leg-injury sustained in the second half of the game.

Seniors: In its best performance so far this season, the Eagles' will take a lot of positives from the side's performance to rivals Leongatha last weekend. In a game where the home side trailed by just seven points early in the final term, the Parrots did just enough to return down the highway with the four points, winning 13.11.89 to 9.15.69.

Kade Renooy played his best game so far this season, racking up 31 disposals (including 25 kicks) making an impact all over the ground. Mitch Bennett returned to his dangerous best prowling the forward half and finished with three goals to his name, while perhaps most pleasingly were Maffra's young brigade of Ryan Auld, Ryan Thatcher, Jett Killoran and Henry Anderson, who each stood up and contributed when required. Jett's first senior goal, and then his second – to put us within seven points of the lead in the final quarter – were highlights that will be remembered for seasons to come. Despite injuries in the midfield, the side continues to have a number of contributors who can go through and make a meaningful impact.

Netball

On Saturday we had two Maffra young guns Chloe Smith and Chloe Felsbourg playing their first A Grade Netball game. Both Chloe's are accurate, skilful shooters, currently playing in our strong under 15s side. Playing third on the ladder Leongatha, they had very strong opponents. We were all very proud of the maturity and confidence the girls showed.

C Grade Maffra continued with their strong team work and skilful netball, now sitting 2 games clear on top of the ladder. Beating second place Leongatha by 2 points.

Under 15s had a nail biter game, coming down to the last seconds. Maffra 39 drew with Leongatha 39.

Our Under 13s, 17s and B Grade will be looking to fight back and secure wins as we travel to Warragul this weekend.

Today we travel to Western Park to take on Warragul in another great set of match-ups.

We wish all teams and coaches best of luck.

BAIRNSDALE

Back to earth with a thud. Just the one win last week which came from our Two's footy who put in a strong performance to get the choccies by 17 points. Oscar Clarke, Sam Hopkins, Daniel Eastman, Liam Russell, Joeby Ritchie and 3 goals to Tom Hudson backing up from the 3rds. Well done, boys.

It's been a tough year numbers wise and injury, illness and unavailability all playing their roles. Here's a shout out to all the "Double Uppers" who make it possible to fill teams each week. In the footy and netball we've had players double up from U11s all the way to A Grade and Seniors. We've also had boundary umpires run up to 3 games and water carriers doubling up. Timekeepers, court officials and runners have all doubled up for the cause. It's not an ideal situation so to you we say – Thanks for making footy and netball possible for others.

Our Youth Girls got back on the winners list with a commanding 10-goal win over Drouin at Drouin. Better players on the day were Gabby Foster (6 goals), Lydia Gudgin, Maegan Sherritt, Lucy Carroll (3 goals), Evelyn Gudgin, Jasmin O'Connor. We host Moe tomorrow so drop into the City Oval on your way home and give the girls a cheer.

Our 13s are in finals contention and our 11s and 15s are playing some good footy and improving each week. We head seaside to Lakes tomorrow. Good luck to all.

What do 1902, 1912, 1952, 2002 and 2012 have in common? They were all Bairnsdale Premiership years in one form or another. 2002 was 1s and A Grade and 2012 the U18s broke through in our 2nd season back in the Gippsland League. 11 June at our Queen's Birthday weekend game v Warragul, we'd love to have as many of you back together to celebrate your achievement. The past player's bar/balcony will be in full swing. More details to come. Keep an eye on FB and your messenger groups.

Round 7 President's Club $500- draw winner was Todd Plumbing Supplies – Todd Murray and Riviera Joinery – Anthony Forehan took home the Lucke's Fresh Food Market hamper.

Mark these dates in your Calendar. Always fun to be had with the Redlegs.

11 June Rnd 9 v Warragul – MND Round and Past Players

25 June Rnd 11 v Maffra – Annual Sponsors Day (Special guest to be confirmed)

Wonthaggi is a long way to come for a game of footy or netball so let's make sure we take a swag of points home with us. The 13s is a must win 4v3 battle and our 15s and 17s are a big show today, our Bs are looking to further consolidate their top 5 spot and Cs looking for their 2nd win. We're especially gunning for a breakthrough A grade win today. The 3s will need to work their way to a win and the 2s and 1s are a huge possibility to claim season changing wins today. With the upcoming bye we've got two weeks to recover so lets make sure we leave it all out there. Don't Think. Do.

Challenge Yourself. Good luck to all players and teams.

Vote Counts
made easy

Does your club secretary spend hours putting together Power Point slides for the end of season vote count presentation? If the answer is yes,

SPORTS VOTE COUNT

is your answer!

Creating vote count presentations has always been a slow and time consuming task for club volunteers, sometimes taking weeks to compile.

Let SVC take the time and effort out of your end of season presentation.
