GM'S WELCOME

Round 3 is here and it is our ANZAC Round with yet another highly anticipated schedule of matches ahead. The center piece of the Saturday schedule is the ANZAC clash between Traralgon and Morwell at night. The A Grade and Seniors start from 6:30pm. We also have a special event from 6:30pm thanks to our major partner Optus we have a movie night at the game with Space Jam 2 live on the Optus Truck big screen for the kids while mum and dad can watch the games. It's another terrific initiative by the League and Optus who continue to support community sport on and off the field. The Battle of the Birds between Maffra and Sale also comes to us this weekend on Saturday afternoon meaning our fans will get arguably the two biggest home and away matches on the calendar live this Saturday. TRFM are doing another first which will add to our cutting edge coverage of local sport by doing the double header with these two senior matches both broadcast live on 99.5FM. The crew will take on the Battle of the Birds then pack up and make their way to Traralgon to cover the night match. We can't wait to tune in.

ROUND 2

250 Senior Club Games

Loren Ponton (Traralgon)

Affectionately known as 'Junior Burger', Loren first joined the Traralgon Football Netball Club in 2008 as a 15 year old, in the footsteps of her older sister Caitlan. Since then, Loren has never missed a season, playing from U15s through to present, at the age of 31.

Loren is a dynamic and reliable mid-courter. What she lacks in height, she makes up for in effort and determination. Loren has developed into a well-respected and adored leader within the entire senior playing group at Traralgon, where she has been voted in by her team-mates as C grade captain since 2016. Whilst generally quiet in nature with a calm temperament, Loren leads by example on the court, with both her actions and unwavering competitiveness.

Throughout her years as a player, Loren has achieved:
3x C Grade Premierships (2011, 2012, 2016)
2014 B Grade Premiership
2016 C Grade League Runner-Up Best & Fairest

In addition to her impressive on-court achievements, Loren's contribution to the club as a volunteer and supporter has been exemplary. Loren is always the first to put her hand up for any duties that arise on game day, where she can often be seen on the score bench, the canteen, timekeeping, court supervising, covering for others without hesitation or complaint.

In 2022, Loren was awarded Life Membership at TFNC for her dedication and service to the club as both a player and a volunteer. We congratulate 'Junior Burger' on yet another of her incredible achievements and wish her well as she takes the court for her 250th senior club game for the mighty Maroons!

PAST ROUND 3s

5 YEARS AGO 21st April 2018

Maffra scored a thumping win over Wonthaggi, starting proceedings with a nine goal first quarter. Danny Butcher and Jack Johnstone were brilliant on-ball, ensuring forwards in Mitch Bennett (5 goals) and Andrew Petrou (4) were given a constant supply of the ball. Moe beat the previously unbeaten Warragul, Accuracy in front of goal served Moe well with Ash Dugan (5) and Scott Van Dyk (4) leading the goalscoring. Charlie Rieniets and Mitch Stanlake led a rock solid defence for the Lions. Despite being competitive for the first half, Drouin was completely outplayed by Bairnsdale after half time. The Redlegs piled on 14 goals to 5 after the long break, Simon Deery and Nick Sing leading the charge with thirteen goals coming from Russell Cowan, Brayden McCarrey and Josh Kiss. Chris Dunne's six goal haul led Leongatha to a huge win over Morwell. The Tigers were kept to a single goal for the first three quarters. The closest match of the round was under lights at Traralgon. There was never much between Sale and the Maroons, with the Magpies prevailing by 22 points. Mitch Dowse (Sale) and Tate Marsh (Traralgon) were their side's respective best players.

10 YEARS AGO 27th April 2013

A nine goal second quarter set Morwell on its way to a huge win over Moe. Daniel Hutchison's eight goals led the way for the Tigers who took over the top spot on the ladder from Sale. For their part, Sale had a hard earned win at Wonthaggi. The Magpies led by a solitary point going in to the last quarter, Chris Laverty and Kane Martin playing strongly in the midfield as Sale emerged with an eighteen point win. Bairnsdale, with Mark Sellings on target with eight goals, was too strong at home against Drouin. Darren Sheen's six goal haul led Maffra to a good win over Leongatha, Cade Maskell contributed five goals for the Parrots. Ryan Murphy and Jackson Hall combined for twelve of Traralgon's 23 goals as the Maroons built a ten goal half time lead, extending that to an 82 point margin by the final siren. Warragul's best was current Traralgon coach Mark Collison.

20 YEARS AGO 19th April 2003

Maffra inflicted Leongatha's first loss for the season, the Eagles remaining the only team with an unblemished record. The expected close tussle lasted for a half, Maffra going in to half time with a seven point lead. Hayden Burgiel and Jeremy Jones gave the Eagles great drive in the third term where the break was made, Maffra kicking six goals to one, going on with the job in the final term to win by 49 points. Adrian Burgiel (5) and Lee Anderson (4) led Maffra's scoring. Remarkable accuracy by Sale saw them at 15.3.93 at three quarter time of their match against Wonthaggi, the Magpies ahead by five points. Wonthaggi coach Dean Rice moved forward in the final term, kicking two vital goals as the Blues got up by a solitary point. The experienced duo of full back Martin Cameron and power forward Paul McCulloch (4 goals) led Traralgon to their first win for the year. Moe didn't help their cause with just eight behinds for the first quarter in a game won by the Maroons by fourteen points. Morwell had the bye.

30 YEARS AGO 24th April 1993

Sale sat alone on top of the LVFL ladder after scoring a fifty point win over Maffra. Led by great games from Damian Hogan and Regan Ryan, the Magpies added eleven goals to five after half time. Just two points separated Moe and Leongatha going in to the final quarter before the Lions powered away with seven goals to two. Brett Szabo and Shane Jarvis were Moe's best with brilliant half forward Dennis Ryan kicking another six goals to go to 21 for the season. Morwell and Bairnsdale put on a highly entertaining game, both teams kicking eighteen goals for the game. Locked together on 77 points at three quarter time, Morwell kicked seven goals to Bairnsdale's six in a thrilling final term. Lachlan Sim and Jason Sherriff were best for the Tigers with Bairnsdale's Andrew Hamer and Daniel Gaunt their best. Steve Schaeche was the standout forward with his seven goals. Traralgon was too strong for a determined Churchill side, the Maroons skipping away with eleven second half goals, coach Geoff Cunningham and Churchill ruckman Jim Dear named as best for their respective sides. Warragul had the bye.

40 YEARS AGO 16th April 1983

For the second time in the opening three rounds Traralgon went down by two points, this time to Bairnsdale. Bairnsdale led by a goal at the first and third quarter breaks, with Traralgon ahead by two points at half time. Bairnsdale rovers Chris Redenbach and Shane O'Brien were in great form all day as Traralgon's final quarter tally of 3.5 proved costly. Warragul was too strong for Newborough, the Gulls winning by 104 points, but the story of the match was the seven reports of six players, which meant the Tribunal was in for a late night. The Yallourn North oval was in a very heavy condition as the scoreline from their match with Morwell told the tale, 5.18.48 to 5.7.37. Leongatha blitzed TTU, kicking 25 goals to one, Paul Heppell, Ken Lester and Ian Salmon kicking four goals apiece. Moe appeared to be out of the game against Maffra at half time where they had kicked two goals, but they rallied in the third term to be just six points down. They went on with the game with four final quarter goals. Steve Lincoln was instrumental in their revival, with big men Steve Weadley and Trevor Alexander taking control in the ruck.

50 YEARS AGO 28th April 1973

The evenness of the LVFL competition was evident with three games decided by less than a goal and a ladder which had Warragul on top with two wins and Maffra on the bottom with one. Maffra's first win came at the expense of top side Moe. The Eagles were quick off the mark with 7.7 in the opening term. Despite Moe's fightback, the Eagles seemed in control at the final break where they led by 22 points. Moe came hard again, falling just two points short. Eagle forward Jim Pleydell topscored with five goals. Heyfield led Yallourn by 37 points at half time, the Blues kicking six third quarter goals to reduce the margin to eleven points. Onbatters Ian Kirkup and Robert "Jock" Welsh led the final charge as the Blues edged ahead to win by three points. The third heart-stopper saw Morwell ahead all day against Traralgon. Traralgon came hard in the final quarter, but a tally of 3.8 for the term saw them agonisingly close losers. Brett Stanistreet (Morwell) and Ken Ludlow (Traralgon) were named as best with young star forward Kelvin Templeton kicking five goals for the Maroons. Leongatha and Warragul enjoyed comfortable wins over Sale and Bairnsdale respectively.

Most goals (match): Wonthaggi 12 Murray Silver (2004)
Moe 10 Jordan Meikle (1998)

Notes: Wonthaggi (4th) today takes on the top side in Moe in what should be one of many great clashes today. The Power came ever so close to beating Leongatha last week, leading for 85 minutes of game time, and being unlucky not to have ended the Parrots' great run of wins. Moe has had two strong victories to date and will be hoping to have a relatively injury free season. Trips to Wonthaggi are never easy as Moe (admittedly injury depleted) found out in the final home and away round last year.

Warragul v. Leongatha

(1934–53 (CGFL), 1969–99, 2005–2022)

Most goals (match): Warragul 14 Simon Byrne (1989)
Leongatha 11 Adrian Campbell (1997), Nick Nagel (2011)

Notes: Leongatha's monster unbeaten run remained intact last week after what must have been some trepidation as their 30th successive victory in this competition was gained with a slender three point margin against Wonthaggi. Warragul will have put its disastrous loss to Moe behind it as it prepared for today's game. Can the Warragul side of 2023 emulate the 2019 team, which sat at the foot of the ladder when, in Round 4, they made the trip to take on Leongatha who sat on the third rung. The one point win by the Gulls that day stunned all followers of the Gippsland League. Nothing is ever certain in football.

Greatest winning margin: Bairnsdale 162 (2014), Drouin 112 (2011)

Most goals (match): Bairnsdale 12 James Gibbs (2014)
Drouin 10 Adam Cook (2011)

Notes: Drouin scored their second ever win at the City Oval when they travelled to Bairnsdale in Round 15 last year. In what is one of the longer trips in country football, this was interesting in that Bairnsdale had won at Drouin when they met earlier in the season. Both these outfits are much improved versions of their 2022 line-ups, both unlucky not to be sitting on 2–0 win-loss records. Bairnsdale have a drawn match and a three point win to their credit, while the Hawks have lost both so far, but the margins have been narrow. With Bairnsdale sitting in the top Five they will be all out to maintain their form, however no Drouin team is ever beaten until the final siren.

Greatest winning margin: Sale 162 (1987), Maffra 131 (2005)

Most goals (match): Sale 10 R.Christie (1978)

Maffra 11 A.Paynter (1994), D.Stubbe (2009)

Notes: Few, if any, pundits would have expected to see last year's Grand Finalist Sale sitting at the foot of the ladder after the completion of Round 2 matches. Should Sale lose today and go to a 0–3 record, it will be just the third time in league history that a previous year's Grand Finalist has lost the first three games of the following year. The two previous instances of Grand Final teams losing the three opening games the year after are Morwell in 1998 and Moe in 2000, however both of these teams went on in those years to play finals, Moe in 2000 making it back to the Grand Final. Both teams will be leg weary from playing in heavy conditions last weekend, but in true fashion will turn it on for their fans.

Traralgon v. Morwell

Notes: Before last year's Elimination Final, which was played at Traralgon, four of the last five home and away clashes had been won by the visiting team. The fifth of those games was played at Morwell, but was technically a Traralgon home game, but had been moved to Morwell due to the devastating flood damage. The Traralgon – Morwell rivalry is one of many which exist in this league. The first recorded meeting of these teams dates back to 1882 when games were arranged between the various towns. This game should draw a huge crowd with it being showcased under lights, both teams having high hopes for the year.

WONTHAGGI POWER

We welcome Moe for the Anzac Round this weekend following last week's nail biting loss in the Seniors to Leongatha.

The Reserves continued their great start to the year with a great win and the U16 team are searching for their first win of the year as they face an undefeated Moe. Our Netball teams were unable to the the points last weekend.

Congratulations to Brodie Mabilia on his Senior debut for the club and to Bella Anderson on reaching 50 Senior Netball games.

On Sunday 30th April our club is hosting a VFLW and VFL double header for Box Hill Hawks against the Casey Demons. Start times are 11:30am and 2:30pm. Entry is free and there will be many activities happening around the ground on the day.

Upcoming events:

- Sponsor's & 500 Club Member Day – 6 May
- Blues 1993 Reunion – 27 May
- Mystery Flight Night – 17 June

- Power 2013 Reserves Reunion – 8 July
- Member's Day followed by Reverse Mock Wedding in the evening – 29 July
- Ladies Day followed by Hypno Night in the evening – 19 August
- Family Golf Day – 27 August
- Power Ball – date to be confirmed

Memberships can still be purchased at the gate today and if you can also collect your membership pack on entry. Huge thanks to Leanne Brown who has done a great job organising our memberships this year.

Check out our great range of merchandise in the social room and the club office is also open on training nights. Get in quick whilst we have all sizes available.

Good luck to all our teams today.

MOE

ON the road to Wonthaggi today.

Some enticing matches are on the cards, in what should provide most of our teams with a good challenge in their respective grades.

Hopefully the trip back is a joyous one. For those interested, the senior group will be having dinner at Grand Ridge Brewery, Mirboo North.

Quite a bit has happened since the last notes were submitted. Printing deadlines meant we missed Bailey Humphrey's debut in the last round of notes.

Humpa made his debut for Gold Coast against St Kilda over the Easter Break. It worked out well, with a number of Moe supporters able to get along to Marvel Stadium to see the match. Humpa has since gone on to kick his first goal at AFL level, following a passage of play for the highlight reel that featured a one-hander. Congratulations Humpa, and here's hoping to a bright future at the top level. It would be remiss to forget our other AFL players, Leo Connolly, who we are hoping can get another look in at the Saints soon, and Sam Flanders, who we would love to see play a game alongside Humpa at Gold Coast.

Last Sunday was truly emotional-charged, as more than 400 people took part in the inaugural Walk With Chop event. Moe was joined by clubs across the region in honouring the legacy of Riley 'Choppy' Pearce, as participants ran or walked along the rail trail, raising money for Mindfull Aus. An incredible $24,000 was raised.

On the football field, a successful day saw wins to the seniors, development (had to backspace there) and fourths.

The seniors entered the record books for all the right reasons, keeping their opponents to the lowest ever Round 2 score in Gippsland League history.

The development team broke away after halftime, playing a good brand after the main break.

Unfortunately the thirds were undone by a team featuring some very tall timber. There was better news in the fourths, as eight goals to captain Tom Matthews saw him take the proverbial.

Over at the netball, A Grade won by 12 on the new Western Park courts, with Olivia Barnett best on.

B Grade won by some distance, and was well served by Rachael Blackshaw. C Grade had the most exciting game of the day, winning by two. Best on court went to Amy Hender.

In the juniors, the 17s lost a competitive game, but found good service from Steph Nowell and Memphis Walton. The 15s won by four, best on court honours going to Miley Kelly and Zekiya Glibanovic. The 13s won in dominant fashion, so dominant in fact the mercy rule was applied. Virginia Daly and Summer Parise collected the honours.

LEONGATHA

It was a massive turn out for the first home game of the season at Parrot Park on Saturday, it was a day of celebration as the club invited back 2022 Premiership Players who have hung the Green and Gold up along with returning players to unveil the Seniors, Reserves and C Grade Netball Premiership Flags. It was a very successful day for the Parrots against our West Gippsland Rivals winning 9 out of 10 games.

In the seniors the game was an epic battle that saw the parrots come from behind and win by 3 points, there was a lot of 2022 Semi Final about the clash with a couple of handy points getting the parrots over the line, I am sure Trent would have rather the ball go through the big sticks though. Jack Hume's 4 Goals along with small forward Jesse Burns with 2 goals were important for the Parrots but the moment of the day went to Levi Hickey kicking his first senior goal when it was well needed. It was great to keep the winning streak alive for our senior team as the other clubs are trying to hunt them down.

In the Development Game the parrots fell short by 9 points, the boy started to get a bit of momentum in the second half but unfortunately it wasn't their day. The young brigade of Ty Hall, Noah Fixter and Dacry Hume were in the bests for the parrots. Unfortunately, 4ths Coach Blake Van Roy went down with a serious knee injury in the game. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The U18s had the week off due to Wonthaggi not being able to field a team this year but they were all there early to get around their mates in the Winning Under 16s football team. Finn Donohue, Jett Brown, Angus Livingstone, Max Sheahan, Mitch Croatto and Tim Hibberson were in the bests.

It was a massive day over on the netball courts with the Parrots winning 5 out of 5 games along with the U13 Girls winning on Wednesday Night as most of the girls in both teams were up in Ballarat for Basketball. The A grade Netball won by 18 goals with Taylah Brown, Nicola Marriott and Lauren Redpath in the bests. B grade got their first win on the board belting the power by 36 goals. Kayla Redpath, Jade Cashin and Emma Ton picking up the awards for B grade. C Grade won by 29 goals, Bronte Whyte, Lily Hume and Elicia Garnham in the bests. The under 17 netball came away with a 3 goal win against Wonthaggi with Sari Hickey, Audrey McGannon and Mackenna Anderson in the bests. The under 15s won by 19 with Gemma Meadley, Claudia Donohue and Tess Croatto in the bests.

Today we weave our way through the hills to Warragul to face the Gulls, we will be paying respects to the ANZACs this round over in Warragul.

Joke of the week:

"Knock knock"
"Who's there?"
"A parrot"
"A parrot who?"
"A parrot-ly some birds can talk!"

BAIRNSDALE

Our A Grade made it two in a row with a win over Sale last week whilst our seniors claimed a hard fought 3 point win. Reserves are also on the winners board in another tense 4 point game. 16's had a strong win whilst our 18s got their noses in front but then were met at the line by the Magpies in what was an exciting draw. Our C Grade had a strong win as did our 13s and our 15s and 17s had narrow losses in games where the scoreboard didn't tell the full story. In all it was a great, albeit wet, day against our long term rivals.

Our Reverse Draw is TONIGHT following our games v Drouin with Ryan Shore performing from 5:30pm. Prizes are $2,000 for the last ticket out, a Holiday in Darwin valued at $1,700 and $1,000 for 3rd last ticket out. Our netballers are catering and limited beer and wine which is included with your ticket purchase. If you haven't got a ticket, find a player (footy or netball) and buy one before they all go. Players, if you still have tickets, make it known you are selling. All tickets must be sold.

Round 3 here we come. Today we welcome Drouin in what are always close, hard fought contests.

Business owners . . . look up our socials for an opportunity from GAWK Outdoor that may help you create some sales. You could win $1200 of billboard advertising.

The President's Club Draw is back for 2023 and each week one of our Sponsors will Win $500 or a Lucke's Fresh Food Hamper. Last week it was Bairnsdale Club for the cash and Tambo Waste taking the hamper. New draw tonight following today's game.

DROUIN

FOURTHS

Drouin Fourths started out strong and had most of the forward play and strong defending all day long preventing any big scores for Morwell. Unfortunately many of the Drouin scoring shots resulted in minor scores but still came home with the win, 2nd for the season leaving the boys in high spirits.

Bests: Jake Boote, Charlie Croucher, Caleb Kleeven, Tyler Harkin, Brody Rogers, Will Cini.

THIRDS

A hard fought four quarters of footy for the boys, improving on their efforts from the week before against Warragul but Morwell were better in their defensive and offensive play getting most of the centre clearances and coming out with a 35-point victory.

Bests: William Young, Ashton Wanigavitharana, Regan Caddy, Cam Caddy, Rylie Baker, Hamish Piner.

RESERVES

Morwell lined up strong and intensive against a smaller Drouin side, victors by 93 points.

Bests: Flynn Bethune, Sam Pratt, James McKellar, Chris Lovett, James Munro.

SENIORS

It was a super exciting game between the two teams going almost goal for goal all the way through to the last few minutes of the final term. Morwell just found something extra towards the end and were able to come away with the win by 8 points. For Drouin supporters, there is reason to get excited for what is to come as the boys fought hard all the way to the final siren and gave us a glimpse of the talent amongst them and the game plans starting to come together.

Bests: Kye Quirk, Hugo Birks, Will Papley, Aden Quirk, Jarrod Marshall, Tom Evans.

Business Partners Day

Planning is in progress for another celebration of our valued Sponsors/Business Partners on the 13 May 2023. Looking for another great turnout with our guest speaker, new coach Brent Clinnick coming up against a Q & A with Football Manager Rob Fairlie.

In a very tough raining conditions, we managed/survived our first home game for 2023.

We'd like to thank Bairnsdale for a great day, and a great battle on and off the field/court etc.

A couple of close encounters saw Bairnsdale taking home the inaugural Dahlsen's Cup.

Thank you to all our sponsors for coming for a great day, it was a great showcase of what's the life blood of our fantastic little club.

Today we host Maffra for our Battle of the Birds clash, both clubs have a long-standing archrival, this round every year never disappoints – it's always full of passion, grit and determination to win, it's never boring. After the game we will be holding our 1st club function see below flyer for more details.

MAFFRA

Round Three sees us travel to Sale to continue our famous rivalry with the Magpies in the 'Battle of the Birds'.

Best of luck to all our football and netball teams!

Last Saturday Round 2 vs Traralgon

U16

Maffra 5.13.43 defeated by Traralgon 7.7.49

Best: Samuel Richards, Matt Kevin Rondon, Lachlan Harrington, Jaylen Henry, Axel Sellings, Thomas Hunt

Goals: Jack McQuillen 2, Tom Phillips 1, Mack McMahon 1, Jye Brickley 1

A valiant effort from our Under 16 side last weekend, who went down to Traralgon by a single straight kick. While 13 behinds might indicate some missed opportunities, we took heart from our 18 scoring shots on the day. Captain Jack McQuillen led from the front with two goals, adding to his pair from round one. This week sees gives us a chance to re-enter the top four, when we take on Sale!

U18

Maffra 4.1.25 defeated by Traralgon 12.16.88

Best: Harry Stables, Jonathan Boyd, Ryan Phelan, Elliot Stables, Jack Kelly, Thomas Scott

Goals: Harry Stables 1, Jos Dimarco 1

With nine players out due to injury or representative duties (Gippsland Power and Maffra Seniors), it was terrific to see seven Under 16 players step up last weekend to fill the void.

Jono Boyd, Harry Stables and Ryan Phelan were rock solid everywhere, while Tom Scott was second to none in the ruck, rarely losing a hit-out. But Traralgon proved too strong, with their 28 scoring shots to five proving they were the stronger team on the day. We're already looking forward to the rematch in round 12, where we will hopefully have something closer to a full strength side to take on the Maroons.

Reserves

Maffra 4.6.30 defeated by Traralgon 11.8.74

Best: Will Brunt, Callum Bourke, Owen Gallagher, Brodie Johnson, Mac Huts, Sebastian Pendergast

Goals: Harry Stables 1, Ben Horsford 1, Cameron Johnson 1, Owen Gallagher 1

Last week saw Traralgon set up their win with a three-goal-to-one first quarter. Maffra fought back in the 2nd term, putting on three goals of their own, but the second half belonged to the visitors, who ran away 44-point winners. While the result wasn't what we were after, it was pleasing to see a number of younger players named in the best again, showing a positive transition from Under 18 players to seniors.

Seniors

Maffra 3.6.24 defeated by Traralgon 9.15.69

Best: Kade Renooy, Alex Carr, Danny Butcher, James Read, Ed Carr, James Huts

Goals: Daniel Bedggood 2, Darcy Davis 1

An intriguing match-up last week, as we welcomed Traralgon to the Maffra Recreation Reserve for Round two.

Daniel Bedggood kicked the first major of the match, while Traralgon couldn't convert their five attempts.

Frustratingly, we went scoreless in the second term, but the Maroons kept us in the game after only adding one goal and eight behinds to lead by 13 at the main break – this was despite leading the inside-50 count 29-to-15.

Traralgon found their rhythm in the third quarter, scoring six-goals-to-one, and went on to win the game by 45 points. Kade Renooy was best afield with 34 disposals (including 29 kicks). Ed and Alex Carr had solid games in midfield with over 30 possessions each, while James Read registered 13 spoils after running through the banner for his 150th senior game in the red and black. The final highlight came from Darcy Davis, who notched up his first goal in senior footy.

We are keen to finish on the positive side of the ledger this week, when we take on Sale away.

NETBALL

Our Netballers claimed two wins from six starts last week, and were unlucky not to have one or two more.

A Grade (Loss 25–40)

Down by four at half time after an 11-goal second term, but Traralgon were able to put on 22 goals in the second half to our 11 in wet conditions. Ash Keefe led the way with 19 of the side's 25 goals, to sit equal fourth on the league goal scoring tally. Best players were Nat Allman, Bec Bourke and Sarah Edey.

B Grade (Loss 42–55)

High scoring game, but the Eagles went down 42-55 in tough conditions. Abbie Ross converted 31 of her shots, while Jas Hennig put up 11 of her own. Best players were Sophie Randall, Jas Hennig and Jana Hennig. After having the week off in round one, the Eagles will look for their first win of the season against Sale this weekend.

C Grade (Win 50–34)

Another great win by our 2023 Grand Finalist C grade side who make it two wins from two starts in 2023. Scores were tied at the first break (11-all), but the remainder of the match belonged to Maffra, who out-scored Traralgon 38-23 for the rest of the game. Serrin Stobie put 40 shots through, and leads the C grade goals scoring with 67 from two games. Shout out to Loz McQuillen on her return to the court! Awards to Serrin Stobie and Brooke Anderson.

U17 (Loss 37–40)

The Under 17s went down in a thriller last week, 37 to 40. After a great opening quarter where we scored 13-to-9, Traralgon gained the upper hand in the second and third stanzas. Despite out-scoring our opponents in the final term, it wasn't quite enough to get the points. Charlotte Stephenson (23) and Chloe Felsbourg (14) led the scorers. Awards going to Charlotte Stephenson and Bella Forsyth. We are looking forward to the test against ladder-leaders Sale today.

U15 (Loss 19–51)

A great effort from our U15 team last week, who went down to a strong Traralgon side. Best players were Brooke Kelly, Olivia Palmer and Krystal Craft.

U13 (Win 23–22)

A tremendous effort by our U13 side last weekend, who were victorious over Traralgon by the smallest of margins. A big thank you to those that filled in last week. Awards to Lincoln Fulford and Jesse Daly.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Congratulations to the winners of the iPod shuffle: 1st Sam Robbins, 2nd Marnie Davis and 3rd Maddie Davis. And our Rubik's cube best dressed Nathan Pollard, Jordan Stubbe and Tracey Shelton.

Tonight we encourage you to head to our great sponsor Sporting Legends Sale for dinner after our matches to support those that support us!

MORWELL

WELCOME TO ROUND 3

Our round 3 clash with rivals Traralgon promises to be a big one on both the field and court. We're hoping to carry over the good form from Round 2 against Drouin, all senior teams across our football and netball departments will be looking to bring home the premiership points for consecutive weeks. This weekend we see Tiger dual premiership player Tanya Budge step on to the court in her 50th A Grade/Club game. Tanya's career began in the Mid Gippsland League where she had notched up over 300 games and many accolades including Club and League B&Fs, selection to Teams of the Year and numerous premierships. We look forward to this weekend and encourage everyone to get behind Tanya and all of the netballers as they take on Traralgon in this night class.

NETBALL – In Round 2 we unveiled the 2022 "A" Grade premiership flag, the team went Back2Back in 2022 to secure the third premiership for our club in 8 years. Four of the six netball teams last weekend walked away with convincing wins, whilst our U17s tied the game up against Drouin. Our rolling subs were in action, and it was great to be back on the home court for season 2023.

FOOTBALL – Great wins across all senior grades last weekend saw our seniors take the premiership points in a nailbiter against the Hawks. Brandon MacDonald featured in the best players for round 2 kicking 7 goals in the 8-point victory. In other games both our reserves and thirds ran home convincing winners in round 2.
