ALL STARS SET TO SHINE

The young stars of the Alinta Energy Gippsland League are set to shine when the inaugural Virtue Homes All Star event taking place today.

In the absence of various levels of representative sport including under 16s and senior football the League has decided to showcase its own talent and bring all the clubs of the League together for the All Star weekend over the May bye. The event will aim to not only provide the players with development opportunities but also promote the League and member clubs while also connecting the various players and coaches involved with the program from within the Gippsland League.

The Alinta Energy Gippsland League is fortunate now to be in a position where we can deliver these extra projects to help grow and develop both the League and the players within the competition. We are extremely excited at the prospect of bringing this event into the calendar, it should be a lot of fun for the players to be involved in and the fans to watch.

I would like to thank the many hands that have helped to get this event up. A big shout out to League Operations Manager Brandon Milburn who has worked tirelessly to ensure that the players and squads are ready to go for the event. Thanks to Carlie Dwyer and all the netball coaches who have put their hand up to be involved. Many of the coaches will backup tomorrow at another lead in tournament to Association Championships so we thank Jo, Kate and Sophie for their efforts.

Thanks to Boyd and Jed our senior coaches, Unfortunately Jed suffered a horrific injury only a few weeks out and luckily we had Moe Assistant Shane Paynter step up to fill his place. Thanks to Declan Keilty and Adrian Burgiel our junior coaches. It has been great buy in from the juniors so thanks for your work.

A massive thanks to Kevin Foley and Traralgon FNC for allowing us to use the venue for today's event. They have again been a great supporter of the League and this event. Thanks also to Maffra FNC and Moe FNC for hosting the training sessions in the lead up.

WE ARE GIPPSLAND

The Alinta Energy Gippsland League encompasses the entire Gippsland Region. The League is proud to represent all areas of Gippsland and embraces being the 'premier football/netball league' in the region. The league consists of the region's ten of the largest towns/cities. Bairnsdale, Drouin, Leongatha, Maffra, Moe, Morwell, Sale, Traralgon, Warragul and Wonthaggi, while the league covers six local councils; Baw Baw, Bass Coast, East Gippsland, Latrobe City, South Gippsland and Wellington.

The League provides a pathway for footballers, netballers and umpires to play/officiate at the highest level in Gippsland and beyond. Gippsland League invests heavily in our junior development and both our football and netball representative programs. Every year the League participates in the Association Championships (Netball Victoria's talent pathway tournament) where we enter multiple junior sides and an open team. These sides frequently win the Gippsland championships and compete in the state finals.

The geography of the League provides a unique experience for players and supporters that get to experience this great region of the world. The map at the base of the page highlights where our clubs are located and why we are truly the Gippsland League. With teams covering all corners of the League and in between, on a Saturday a casual fan is never too far away from an Alinta Energy Gippsland League match day.

PATHWAY TO SUCCESS

It was an amazing two nights at the 2022 AFL Draft when five Gippsland League players realised their dreams after being drafted by AFL clubs. The AFL Draft over the past few years has been split into two separate sittings with night one delivering the first-round picks from this year's crop of talent. Moe talent Bailey Humphrey was the highest touted player from this year's Gippsland Power team and there were no surprises as he was selected with the 6th pick by the Gold Coast Suns. Humphrey originally a Trafalgar and Newborough junior player featured in a number of matches for Moe this season outside his Gippsland Power duties including in the Seniors against Drouin where he kicked two goals. Humphrey joins fellow Gippsland League former players Ben Ainsworth (Morwell) and Sam Flanders (Moe) at the Suns who were also drafted with first round selections.

Fellow talent Jacob Konstanty from Drouin was also drafted in the first round after being picked up by the Sydney Swans. Konstanty was viewed as a top 20 pick by AFL.com.au draft expert Cal Twomey who had the young Drouin star at pick 16 in his phantom draft. Konstanty's selection had a nervous wait to it as Sydney bid on two father son selections before trading out pick 18 and ultimately selecting him with their next selection at pick 20. Konstanty originally from Warragul Blues and Colts featured in the juniors at Drouin while going on to play 4 senior matches over the past two seasons in between Gippsland Power duties including bursting onto the scene in 2021 with a four goal outing.

Night two saw a flurry of Gippsland League players selected in the second and third round. Cooper Vickery became a bolter when he was selected at pick 27 by the Sydney Swans. The Bairnsdale FNC star was Gippsland Power's best and fairest player in 2022. Shortly after Maffra FNC's Coby Burgiel was selected by the West Coast Eagles at pick 29. Fellow Maffra local Max Knobel became the fifth Gippsland League junior selected and joined ex team mate Burgiel in being drafted to the west when he was selected by Fremantle at pick 42.

Alinta Energy Gippsland League has been fortunate to be a key pathway alongside Gippsland Power for players looking to reach the ultimate level. Humphrey and Konstanty join a long list of players which over the past few years has featured names like Caleb Serong ,Sam Berry ,Changkuoth Jiath, Ben McKay, Harry McKay, Ben Ainsworth and Josh Dunkley.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

COURTNEY GARTH - Team Navy

Multiple time premierships player, 2019 League MVP, 2015 League B&F Court Garth continues to be one of the best defenders in the Gippsland League. The first pick in the All Star Draft by her home club coach Rach Paterson. Always one to watch when it comes to the big games which again was the case in the 2022 A Grade Grand Final where she won the best on court medal.

Courtney Garth

NICOLA MARRIOTT - Team Red

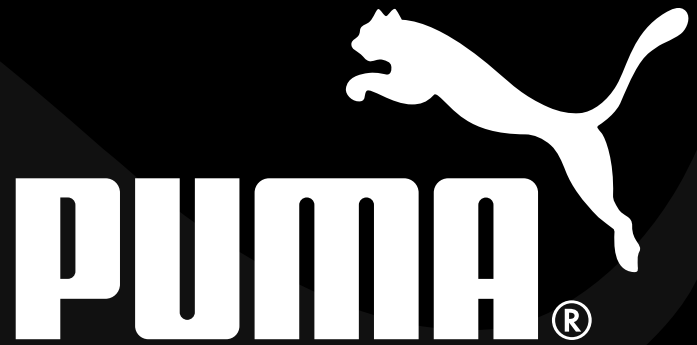

One of the first picked for coach Stacie Gardiner, the Leongatha mid court star has been one of the League's premier players over a number of seasons. Recently played her 150th A Grade game for the Parrots she will add a lot of experience to Team Red. Marriott won the 2021 League best and fairest.

DEE DEE LAMBERT- Team Navy

Key recruit from Melbourne, Lambert has been a welcome addition to the Gippsland League and to the Sale side. Very athletic and a target in the goal ring. She was the third pick for Team Navy in the draft and will likely be the most dominate goaler in the game.
