ROUND 17

100 Games

Robbie Matthews (Moe)

ONE of the biggest milestones in Moe FNC history will be celebrated today.

Be sure to congratulate Robbie Matthews, who will be running out for his 100th game when the reserves take the field.

An ever-present face around the club for many years, Robbie has been a dedicated player and volunteer throughout his time with the Lions. You could just about count on one hand the number of training sessions he has missed.

Wearing the number 44, there is never any shortage of excitement whenever Robbie 'bobs' up for a goal from time to time.

He has stuck through the club, particularly the reserves, through good times and bad, and has always made himself available to play, no matter the circumstances or location.

The epitome of someone who has always put the club before themselves. Congratulations BobMat!

50 Games

Belle Anderson (Bairnsdale)

---

Maffra Football Netball is saddened by the passing of Jim Hill, esteemed Life Member and Legend of the Club and Life Member of the League.

Jim began his football career in 1964 when encouraged by his soon to be brother-in-law Bill Pleydell to attend training at Maffra. Jim had returned to Maffra at that stage to work with his father. A career in football wasn't high in his priorities however his return was the commencement of a 50 plus year's attachment to the Club.

By his own admission, Jim considered himself to be a very ordinary footballer. Nevertheless, for 2 years he plodded around in the Reserves, enjoying his game of football and the few beers that followed, whilst watching the seniors.

For the 1966–67 seasons, Jim was in Melbourne, but his desire to be involved in football continued; this time the Montmorency Football club had the benefit of his playing services.

In 1968, working for NZI, Jim moved to Warragul. This was too close to Maffra for him to join the local club; instead, he travelled back to Maffra to play. It was during 1968 that Jim played his first senior game. He was named as 19th man at Morwell and his services were required on the ground when brother in law Bill Pleydell snapped his Achilles tendon. Six more senior games entered the record books over the next 4 seasons.

Possibly the most memorable of these for Jim was the day against Warragul when he was pitted against future Footscray/Sydney Swans Brownlow Medallist, Barry Round in the ruck.

Jim's least memorable game was in 1971, again against Warragul when he broke his leg. This was to be his last senior game.

In total his career amounted to only 7 senior games, plus 90 games in the Reserves. It was not a career littered with highlights or accolades.

It was a brief senior career; one that pales into insignificance when compared to Jim's contribution to the Maffra Football Netball Club post his playing days. It would be shorter to compile a list of what Jim has not done than to detail his various contributions. Compiling such a list would be an impossible task because no-one will ever know all the things Jim he did for the club.

However, he is listed on the MFNC Honour Board as having accepted the following duties and responsibilities.

- President – 1987
- Secretary – 8 years (1977–1984)
- Treasurer – 6 years (1971–72; 1976–77; 1991–92)

This covers a period of 22 years involved in the administration of this club.

But his name on the Honour Board only recognizes a minor proportion of his commitment to the Club. For over 50 years he was the man to whom other club administrators turned to if they wanted things done; more often he offered his services without being asked.

He was:

- a club delegate at league meetings
- Barman
- Ground keeper
- Scoreboard attendant
- Club historian
- Goal umpire
- Recruiting officer
- Recreation Reserve representative
- Timekeeper
- And President of the Past Players Association (1989–2000)

Jim's contributions weren't ignored. He was recognized by the MFNC on a number of occasions:

- He was a Life Member of Latrobe Valley Football League.
- He was a Life Member of the Maffra Football Netball Club.
- He was a Life Member of the Maffra Football Club Past Players & Officials.
- He was awarded Numerous Best Clubman awards.
- And the best player in Maffra/Sale matches receives the Carter/Hill trophy.

In 2010 he was inducted into the Maffra Football Netball Club Hall of Fame with the added title of "Legend of the Club". To date he is one of only 3 people who have earned the right to be recognized as an official legend of the Club.

Jim will be sadly missed by everybody associated with the Maffra Football Netball Club – both past and present.

Without his contribution the MFNC would not be the same place, nor would the Club have enjoyed the success that has recently come its way.

The facilities the Club plays on and the atmosphere around the club are a testament to him and to his love of the Club.

RIP Hillly.

5 YEARS AGO 18th August 2018

Going in to Round 17, 2018 three teams were locked in a battle for 4th and 5th places on the ladder. Moe travelled to Wonthaggi and, although shockingly inaccurate with a score of 9.26.80, were able to overcome the Power, James DeVirgilio and James Blaser the best for the Lions. Traralgon and Warragul both had away games to Maffra and Sale respectively, and both came up short. Sale on-ballsers Jayden Allison and Kane Martin were able to outpoint their Warragul counterparts Nate Paredes and Kim Drew, although all four played outstanding games. Traralgon tried desperately to keep pace with Maffra but, with Mitch Bennett on fire with seven goals, and Kel Porter and Kieran Jones controlling the stoppages, Maffra forged ahead and iced the game with eight final quarter goals. Leongatha had a huge win at Bairnsdale, Cade Maskell in brilliant form with nine goals and Drouin had a great win over Morwell, Josh Seri ever the opportunist with five goals.

10 YEARS AGO 17th August 2013

With the top five teams now settled, the battle for the double chance third rung on the ladder was on in earnest. Maffra's solid home ground win over fellow finalist Wonthaggi propelled them from fifth to third, replacing Traralgon and leapfrogging the Power. Darren Sheen's five goal effort was crucial for Maffra, James Huts and Sam Tudor leading a backline which conceded just five goals. Traralgon lost a thriller to Morwell, having led by four goals at the first break. The Tigers pegged them back, hitting the front in the final term. Dean MacDonald starred for Morwell with five goals, while key backman Jack Brown was named as their best. Leongatha had a huge win over Moe with classy forward Cade Maskell brilliant with eleven goals. Sale had its game in the bag when they booted nine goals in the second quarter to go in at half time with a 79 point lead over Drouin. Bairnsdale and Warragul had a good battle with the Redlegs' third quarter seeing them gain the break. James Gibbs kicked five goals for the winners.

20 YEARS AGO 2nd August 2003

With four rounds still to go in this 21 round season, the top three of Leongatha, Wonthaggi and Maffra were settled as finalists, leaving Sale and Traralgon to battle it out for the last spot in the finals. Maffra's win over top placed Leongatha was important as it kept the Eagles in touch with the top two. Scott Henning and Ben Coleman led the way for Maffra which won all four quarters for a final winning margin of 41 points. After an exciting first quarter which produced eleven goals, Wonthaggi increased its lead from five points to 47 points, Stuart Gilmour and Pat Brosnan standing out for the Blues. A late rush of four goals to one by Moe against Traralgon was too little too late as the Maroons had established a commanding lead in the first three quarters. The experience of Sam McCulloch, Greg Morley and Josh Jennings saw the Maroons home by 23 points. Morwell had the bye.

30 YEARS AGO 31st July 1993

Traralgon's exciting win over Sale saw them jump from fourth to second on the LVFL ladder creating the intriguing situation where just two premierships points separated second from fourth with three rounds left to play. Traralgon gained an early lead of nine points, a great tussle ensuing for the remainder of the match, the final margin just fourteen points. Martin Cameron and Dean McMahon were best for Traralgon, with Paul McCulloch contributing five goals, while for Sale Matt McGuinness and Tristan Lynch were named as their best. Morwell was too strong for Churchill, Dean Caldwell on target for the Tigers with seven goals, while Dale Burridge and Jason Sherriff were their best two. Warragul also had a big win over Bairnsdale with Guy Freene, Jason Nicholas and Ian Bowman (7 goals) their best. In a game of vastly contrasting halves Maffra opened with eight unanswered goals and led Leongatha by almost ten goals at half time. After the long break it was all Leongatha, the Parrots adding nine goals to Maffra's two in the latter half of the game, Maffra probably fortunate to have held on for the win. Moe had the bye.

40 YEARS AGO 23rd July 1983

While Bairnsdale and Traralgon recorded solid wins to entrench their places in the top three the attention of the league went to Newborough where the Bulldogs stunned Sale with a first half lead of 55 points. The Magpies mounted a comeback where they kicked 6.4 to 0.0 in the third quarter and had a three point lead deep into the final quarter. A free kick was awarded off the ball to the 'Borough's' Shaun Scammell. Before he could take his kick the final siren sounded, but he held his nerve and kicked truly to give Newborough their fourth win of the season. Tom Alvin and Bruce Cowell led Bairnsdale to a solid win over Maffra. Leongatha kicked nine goals in the first quarter to put their mark on a big win over Warragul and Moe had to fight all the way to take the points against TTU. Traralgon bounced back from a four goal quarter time deficit against Yallourn/Yallourn North by kicking seven goals in the second term to take a seven point lead into the sheds. With John Walsh and Tim Nuttall leading the way, Traralgon built this lead into a 47-point win. Top team Morwell had the bye.

50 YEARS AGO 18th August 1973

Amid a fair bit of debate the LVFL decided to continue with its revolutionary Final Six system which was instigated in 1970, two years before the then VFL changed from a Final Four to a Final Five. The position of the ladder after Round 17 vindicated this decision as Heyfield (5th) was two games ahead of Morwell (8th), with Warragul and Maffra on identical wins. One spanner in the works was bottom placed Yallourn's upset win over Maffra, the Blues gaining an early lead and holding on to win by 13 points. Defenders Bill Slater and Max Bradbury starred for Yallourn. Sale scored a hard earned win at Warragul, just nine goals kicked for the match, Bob Foster and Wayne Morris the best for the Magpies. Moe's 90-point win over Traralgon remains to this day their second biggest victory over the Maroons. Reno Fusinato was Moe's best with the brilliant Ian Jennings at his best with nine goals. Leongatha withstood a second half comeback from Heyfield to get home by fourteen points, while Bairnsdale kicked seven final quarter goals to take their three quarter time lead of five points out to a 37-point win.

Ladder: Sale 60, Moe 52, Leongatha 48, Traralgon 44, Heyfield 32, Warragul 28, Maffra 28, Morwell 24, Bairnsdale 16, Yallourn 8.

Most goals (match): Sale 12 Matthew Ferguson (2011)
Warragul 8 Mark Ridgeway (1981)

Notes: Sale has held sway in recent years in their matches against Warragul, the Magpies having won all ten clashes against the Gulls since the latter half of the 2017 season. Both teams have had interrupted seasons with injury and unavailability, but Sale seems to now have a settled line-up just in time for the finals. Meanwhile Warragul has used their heavy injury toll to give many talented youngsters their first taste of Senior football, something that is sure to bear fruit in the coming years. The young Gulls will give the Magpies a good run for their money.

Most goals (match): Bairnsdale 9 Steven Schaeche (1995)
Morwell 16 Anthony Waller (1998)

Notes: Both Bairnsdale and Morwell will be disappointed with their finishing positions this season. Morwell has gone from finalist in 2022 to narrowly missing out this year. Bairnsdale would have hoped at the outset of the season to have been knocking on the door of the Five, or, better still, to have been contesting finals. The last four meetings between these teams have all been heart-stoppers with margins of 3, 12, 5 and 14 points, all in favour of the Tigers. A spirited game will result in some late season glory for the winner.

Greatest winning margin: Wonthaggi 79 (2023), Traralgon 132 (1998)

Most goals (match): Wonthaggi 7 Cooper McInnes (2023)
Traralgon 8 Tim Aitken (2010)

Notes: These teams have a remarkable strike rate for playing drawn matches. The last time they met at Wonthaggi the final siren saw them locked at 62 points apiece, the 4th drawn match in now 52 matches, or one draw every 13 games. The league has a drawn match around one per one hundred games played, making the record between Wonthaggi and Traralgon quite unusual. Their match at the Terry Hunter Oval, Traralgon earlier this year also drew plenty of attention, but for different reasons. Wonthaggi celebrated its biggest ever win over the Maroons and Cooper McInnes' seven goal haul set a new club record for a Wonthaggi player against Traralgon. If Traralgon is to make waves in this year's finals series they can't return home today with another thumping defeat, but rather must be contesting for a win deep into the final quarter.

Match Aggregate High: 248 pts (2017) Leongatha 36.14.230 d Drouin 2. 6. 18

Match Aggregate Low: 74 pts (2006) Leongatha 5.10. 40 d Drouin 5. 4. 34

Highest scores: Drouin 20.15.135 (2010), Leongatha 36.14.230 (2017)

Lowest scores: Drouin 0.5.5 (2022) Leongatha 5.10. 40 (2006)

Greatest winning margin: Drouin 62 (2010), Leongatha 212 (2017)

Most goals (match): Drouin 5 Troy Kneebone (2010 Elim.F)
Leongatha 17 Joe Fraser (1935)

Notes: Leongatha has won comfortably in the last seven meetings between themselves and Drouin, with the average margin of victory over that time close to one hundred points. Drouin has had a season where luck certainly has not favoured them, with many matches having been lost by single figure margins. They have also had to endure absences through injury to many key players, but like their motto Stout and Bold the Hawks are already planning for next year. Leongatha is seeking to make it a seventh consecutive (allowing for COVID) Grand Final appearance this year, and would love nothing better than to go back-to-back again, but will at the same time be wary of not giving Drouin a sniff of victory. The Hawks will jump at the chance and love to take a big scalp.

Maffra v. Moe

(1960–2023)

All matches: Played 136 Maffra 74, Moe 62

At Maffra: Played 64 Maffra 43, Moe 21

Last ten matches: Maffra 5, Moe 5

Last win at Maffra: Maffra 2022, Moe 2021

Last three matches: 2022 (Mo) Moe 10. 9. 69 d Maffra 3.14. 32
2022 (Ma) Maffra 27.7.169 d Moe 6.8.44
2023 (Mo) Moe 9.19.73 d Maffra 8.4.52

Present winning sequence: Moe 1

Match Aggregate High: 290 pts (2003) Maffra 27.15.177 d Moe 16.17.113

Match Aggregate Low: 64 pts (2019) Moe 5.12. 42 d Maffra 3. 4. 22

Highest scores: Maffra 34.24.228 (2004), Moe 27.14.176 (1993)

Lowest scores: Maffra 3. 4. 22 (2019), Moe 3. 4. 22 (2004 & 2014)

Greatest winning margin: Maffra 206 (2004), Moe 116 (1978)

Most goals (match): Maffra 12 Peter Neville (1982)
Moe 12 Ian Jennings (1968)

Notes: If Moe is able to beat Maffra at Maffra this afternoon they will become the first ever Moe Senior team to win every "away" match in a season. The closest they have come to achieving this is 1963 when they won 7, lost 1 and drew 1. The Lions have also had seasons where they have won all but two away games in 1924, 1945, 1957, 1964, 1971, 1994 and 1998. It's also very important that Moe enters the finals series in two weeks' time with all systems humming. Maffra has put season 2023 to good use with many young players being introduced to the Senior ranks, and their patience will surely be rewarded. This game will be a lot closer than many pundits will predict, and Moe will be made to work hard for the premiership points.

BAIRNSDALE

Wow! To paraphrase the President, what a difference a win makes to the feel of the joint. After breaking a 40-year hoodoo and a 6-game losing streak, there is no other option than to up the ante and win vs Morwell at home today. Two more wins can get us to a 6th place finish and something to build on in 2024. Must Win.

Special welcome to the EGJFA and ODFNL U15 players who trained with the 16s on Thursday. It was a great night on the track and we hope you and your families enjoy the day at the footy today.

In addition to the seniors, our resses have a great opportunity to get on the winners list and receive some reward for effort. Our 3rds and 4ths need to focus on process and team rules to make sure they get the job done today.

Over on the court, it's a pretty big day of action. Our As face a tough challenge v the reigning premiers. We weren't far off last meeting and the improvement shown since Round 8 means we're right in the hunt today. The Cs clash is possibly a preview to the elimination final with the winner gaining some fresh air and moving 4 points clear in 4th. Our 17s have a great opportunity to improve their ladder position and move to 6th whilst a win for our 15s keeps the pressure right on other teams and will be ready to pounce on a second chance possie should the 3rd place team falter. Our 13s must win to stay a game clear of 6th and in the box seat for a finals berth. Our Juniors had a great end of season celebration with their vote count and presentation last Friday night. Thanks to Rob and Brooke Soulsby and all the parents and helpers for their work in making it another great year of junior footy at the Redlegs. The kids had a ball.

Our Youth Girls' season came to a halt last Sunday when we went down to Sale City in the Prelim Final @ Drouin. Upon reflection, the team and individuals improved greatly over the course of the season. It's a credit to them and their coaches in Gudgy and Tayah that they had such a successful home and away season finishing on top of the ladder. Being a fairly young group, most will be back at it again next season. Well done.

"Success isn't always about greatness. It's about consistency. Consistent hard work leads to success. Greatness will come."

– Dwayne Johnson

Good luck to all players and teams.

MORWELL

This week we head down the highway to take on Bairnsdale at the Redleg's home.

NETBALL – The A Grade girls got off to a slow start and Sale took the lead at the end of the first. The girls kicked into gear and never looked back, winning the last 3 quarters and finishing with a 13-goal win led by the player of the day Claire Marks.

B Grade also had a slow start but with a dominant second quarter they led the rest of the game and finished with a win by 9 goals. C Grade are back in the winners circle with a great game taking down the Magpies by 3 goals. Sale juniors were too strong on the day, with the girls going down by double figures in all teams.

FOOTBALL – A 5-goal second quarter saw the Magpies seal their fifth position and run away with a 26-point win. The Reserves had a great start to their match, however Sale were just too strong and the boys went down by 98 points. The thirds had a great game with a 3 goals third quarter helping them take the lead coming into the last term. Sale had a strong last quarter which unfortunately saw the boys go down by 23 points. The fourths struggled to get on the score board in the first, which led to a strong performance by Sale in a 74-point win.

SOCIALS – Our last major function for the year was a great success. The room was filled with sequins, denims and flares with the one and only Tania Budge taking out the crown of best dressed. As the trivia went on the competitiveness came out, which saw Daddy Doggy Disco take the crown of trivia champs. Well done to Daryl on a fantastic night with plenty of laughs and a great night had by all.

SPONSORS – As we head in into the last 2 rounds we want to continue to thank each and every sponsor for their support across season 2023 and encourage everyone to get behind the businesses who support us; JMAC Painting, Team Staffing Solutions and Valley Windows.

MFNC BINGO – Every Wednesday at the Morwell Club in Helen Street we host Bingo. Tickets are on sale from 10am and eyes down at 11:30am.

Lastly if you have photos to share across all of the games each weekend, please don't forget to Tag us @morwellfnc on both Facebook and Instagram.

WONTHAGGI POWER

Today we welcome Traralgon to Wonthaggi Recreation Reserve for our last home game of the home and away season.

Prior to the bye weekend we travelled to Warragul. In the early game, our U16s boys continued to play a great brand of football but were unable to secure the win eventually going down by 21 points. The Reserves had their biggest win for the year and are showing they could be a big threat in the finals as they strolled to a comfortable 122-point win. The Seniors were again too good and were never challenged as they continued their winning form with a 112-point win. The Seniors are currently top of the ladder at the end of Round 16.

NETBALL

It was a good day on the court for the Power netballers last week. We managed to come away with 5 wins for the day, our 15 & Under team won a very close game by just one point. Well done everyone.

With just two games left in the season, we would like to take the opportunity to thank all those who have helped a Saturday run as smoothly as it does. From the coaches to the scorers and everyone in between, Wonthaggi Power Netball appreciates you.

Today we are supporting the Breast Cancer Network Australia with a Ladies Day. The event kicks off at 2:00pm in the social rooms. Thank you to Chloe Thomas and her team for organising what is sure to be a terrific afternoon.

Upcoming events are:

- Family Golf Day – Sunday 27th August
- Vote Count Day – Sunday 17th September
- Presentation Night – Thursday 28th September

Good luck to all our teams today!

TRARALGON

We had a generally successful day on the field and the court against Bairnsdale last week, with a clean sweep of the netball and three out of four wins in the football.

Today, we make the journey over the hills in our final away game of the season to face off against a highly competitive Wonthaggi outfit. Best of luck to all of our athletes.

DROUIN

FOOTBALL

It was a huge week at the Hawks Nest last week as we paused to remember one of our own, Stephen "Scoota" Bethune. We celebrated his life and recognised his input into the club by having his children hold up a banner in his memory and his youngest child, Will wearing his Dad's number 5, running through leading his team mates.

We also celebrated the Seniors' second win for the season cheered on by the Drouin Junior club's under 8s and 10s who pumped the boys up throughout the game and enjoyed getting to run out on the ground for pre-game warm up and getting to be mascots for the day. The boys coming back from trailing by 45 points at the half time siren to take out a 13-point win. Hugo Birks taking out MVP and bagging 8 for the day!

AUCTION NIGHT was a great success with all items selling on the night. Thanks to everyone who donated items, bought items and helped out in any other way to make the night a success.

NETBALL

A day to honour a Champion of our club and a man dear to the hearts of many on and off the court/field. We played for Scoota today!

Congratulations to the BFT Warragul and Lely Center Gippsland A Grade side for digging deep after a slow start to come over the Eagles with a good win.

The Fitness Factory B Grade were ruthless in their 48-goal win!

C Grade had a tough day in the office but will learn from it and come back stronger when they meet Maffra again in the finals.

Our Mel and Jeff atrealty Property Sales Gippsland 17s had a good win hopefully the start of a winning streak in the last few rounds.

The 15s are showing great work rate and improvement again this week.

And the Roger Manson Panels 13s played in a nail biter that went right down the wire missing out on the 4 points by a goal.

Our sponsors are simply the best! Their continued support brings a smile to the faces of our award winners week in, week out and we just couldn't do it without them.

Thank you to McDonald's, Jakk's Pizza Shakk, Lucianos, Drouin, Rod McLeish Insurance Services, The Drouin Family Hotel, Middels Tapas Bar & Restaurant and Lely for this weeks awards!

LEONGATHA

It was a tough day on the tools for A Grade and the Seniors, both falling to the Lions in their Den. But before the two late games it was all green and gold with the parrots winning all bar the Under 13s who fell short by 1 goal. It's an important two weeks for all parrots teams but especially the Under 13s that are sitting in 6th spot one game off 4th and 5th and the Under 16s who are also 6th one game behind today's opponent Drouin with percentage leaning in our favour. All other parrots teams are sitting in the top 5 fighting it out for either a second chance or a week off.

Trevor Riseley paid a visit to our friends at Bridgenorth Parrots Football Club over the weekend to check out the facilities over the Bass Strait. The Bridgenorth Reserves are sitting in a similar spot to our Reserves on Top heading to the pointy end of the year. Bridgenorth Seniors and Thirds are sitting mid table fighting out for a finals spot. Their women's team are undefeated with 14 wins straight looking to claim another Parrot flag.

Key Dates

Final Home Game vs Maffra – 26th August

First Week of Finals – 2nd September

Gippsland League Grand Final Day – 23rd September

Joke of the Week

Thursday night after training, Tallin Brill took Josh Hopkins to the cinema when Brillzy notices a weird shadow behind him it looks like a parrot. He turns to Hoppy and asks "Is that a parrot", Hoppy deeply invested in the movie says "Ask him yourself." Brillzy "Are you a parrot?" "Yes", the parrot says. "What are you doing at the cinema?!" says Brillzy. "Well, I heard in the Avery the Barbie Movie was a must see of 2023!"

GO PARROTS!!!

MAFFRA

The club was saddened to learn of the recent passing of club great Jim Hall. Jim's time and contribution at the club spanned 60 years, including around 100 club games and multiple decades as an administrator and official. In 2010 he was inducted into the Maffra Football Netball Club Hall of Fame with the added title of "Legend of the Club". To date, he is one of only three people who have earned the right to be recognised as an official legend of the club. Jim will be sadly missed by everybody associated with the Maffra Football Netball Club. Thank you to Drouin who last week help commemorate Jim's life with a minute silence at the start of the Seniors Football match.

On the field, this week sees another wonderful milestone with Ben Batalha equalling John Vardy's club games record for Maffra, playing his 282nd game. This is a tremendous achievement which speaks to Benno's commitment and durability and his love for the red and black. Keep an eye on socials this week for more information. Well done, Benno!

Best of luck to all teams at our last home fixture for the 2023 regular season against Moe, who we welcome for Round 17 action. Still a number of Football and Netball teams in the hunt for finals, which is terrific to see!

Seniors

Maffra 14.10.94 def by Drouin 16.11.107

Best: James Read, Brayden Monk, Alex Carr, Sam Davidson, Ed Carr, Lachlan Allman

Goals: Lachie Allman 3, Alex Carr 2, Bailey Carubia 2, Noah Christy 2, Sam Davidson 1, Winston Gieschen 1, Daniel Beddgood 1

A game of two halves against the Hawks last week. Following a ten-goal opening term, Drouin found a way to claw back into the game to eventually triumph by 13 points. There were definitely some highlights for the Eagles. Lachie Allman slotted three majors, while youngsters Noah Christy and Bailey Carubia kicked a pair each. Brayden Monk, Alex Carr and Ed Carr were prominent in the midfield once again. We re-group for our final home game of the season this week against Moe.

Reserves

Maffra 17.5.107 def Drouin 8.2.50

Best: Mathew Rodaughan, Jesse Oldham, Will Brunt, Harry Hare, Mac Huts, Brent Mckenzie

Goals: Jesse Oldham 8, Andrew Mckenzie 2, Ben Harrington 2, Seb Pendergast 1, Mitch Wilson 1, Will Brunt 1, Kal Killoran 1, Oli Brewer 1

A great result for our reserves side, which included a bag of eight goals to Jesse Oldham. The Eagles did what needed to be done at the weekend, which capped off three wins from as many starts for our footballers on the day. We look forward to the challenge against Moe this week.

U18

Maffra 17.10.112 def Drouin 2.1.13

Best: Jett Killoran, Zach Felsbourg, Ashton Wright, Noah Szabatura, Jos Dimarco, Darcy Davis

Goals: Jos Dimarco 4, Seth Smith 4, Darcy Davis 3, Zach Felsbourg 2, James Allman 1, Thomas Little 1, Elliot Stables 1

A terrific result, which secured a finals birth for the Eagles thirds for the 2023 season. It's great to have Seth Smith back in the side, with he and Jos Dimarco kicking four goals apiece. Darcy Davis and Zach Felsbourg chimed in with five majors between them. We sit just behind Warragul on percentage heading into Round 17.

U16

Maffra 16.10.106 def Drouin 3.3.21

Best: Zach O'Keefe, Judd Burgiel, Jaylen Henry, Leo Stephenson, Sam Anderson, Jack McQuillen

Goals: Zach O'Keefe 5, Sam Anderson 3, Will Ruthberg 2, Elijah Berry 1, Matt Kevin Rondon 1, Jack McQuillen 1, Charlie Ross 1, Darcy Scott 1, Tom Phillips 1

Our youngest football side kicked off with a big win against Drouin last weekend. After a competitive opening term, the Eagles kicked away with a six-goal, and two five-goal quarters to finish the match.

Zac O'Keefe continued his excellent season, kicking five majors. The sits 2nd on the ladder, with a top four spot secured, but a challenging assignment against 4th placed Moe this weekend.

NETBALL

A Grade (Loss 29–48)

Best: Matilda Pendergast, Chelsea Allman, Grace Ronchi

Goals: Jas Hennig 15, Chloe Felsbourg 13, Ella Schacht 1

Tough run home with three games against top four sides, but still plenty of positives to gain for season 2023 for the young Eagles side.

B Grade (Loss 24–72)

Best: Jana Hennig, Jas Hennig, Brooke Anderson

Goals: Charlotte Stephenson 12, Jas Hennig 12

A tough day at the office for our B Grade side, who will look to bounce back this week against Moe at home.

C Grade (Win 38–27)

Best: Staci Scott, Brooke Anderson, Bree Burgiel

Goals: Serrin Stobie 28, Jemma O'Brien 9, Nicole Gieschen 1

A terrific win set up by a strong first half which saw the scoreline read 19–11. A top three spot is locked up, but this was an important result with two games left against Moe (7th) and Leongatha (3rd).

U17 (Loss 35–42)

Best: Matilda Pendergast, Katelyn Robinson, Bella Forsyth

Goals: Chloe Felsbourg 23, Charlotte Stephenson 12

Our 17 & Unders were right in the match for its duration, trailing by just four at half time. Despite the loss, a spot in the top five is secure. Well done, girls!

U15 (Win 46–21)

Best: Krystal Craft, Olivia Palmer, Brooke Kelly

Goals: Milla Oldham 26, Shylah Coleman 20

An impressive win for our 15 & Unders, who scored double-digit goals in each quarter and finished the game strongly, scoring 23–7 in the second half. Finals spot secured, with very interesting games against Moe (6th) and Leongatha (3rd) left in the home and away season.

U13 (Win 34–33)

Best: Ella Higgins, Jasmine Daly

Goals: Indi Gieschen 18, Ella Higgins 16

A nail-biter result for our youngest Eagles last weekend, with a victory by the smallest of margins against the Hawks last week. A great start with a 13–6 opening quarter, but Drouin fought back, outscoring Maffra in the 2nd and 3rd terms.

MOE

ON the home stretch now as finals approach.

We have a number of teams safe and secured for September, while a few others will be taking their fight right to the last round.

Today we travel to Maffra in what is shaping as a history-making day for the senior football team.

If Moe is victorious this afternoon, it will be the first time in club history (competing in the Gippsland League) that the senior team has gone unbeaten away from home.

In the earlier game, be sure to cheer on Robbie Matthews, who is playing his 100th game. They don't come much more dedicated than BobMat, who has been around the club for years. You could count on one hand the number of trainings he has missed.

Last week, the seniors repeated their win against Leongatha from earlier in the year, getting the job done by 22 points.

In a brutalising affair, one of the most physical games seen in some time, players from both teams committed themselves wholeheartedly for the cause. Moe added seven goals either side of halftime, all the while keeping their opposition goalless. This was helped in no short way thanks to Declan Keilty, who was monumental in defence. Others to play well were Scott Van Dyk, Riley Baldi, Ben Daniher, Luke Mulqueen and Ben Maslen.

Development put in a decent effort, again under some duress as players went down left, right and centre. Although the Lions trailed at every stage, the fight shown was pleasing nonetheless. Jaryn Makepeace was best-on, followed by Jarrod Thornton, Tom Blacksahw, Jaryd Riddle, Tajh Eden and Warren Hester.

As it stands, the team is facing some anxiety to see whether or not it can steal the last spot in finals. Unfortunately, luck hasn't been on the side of the development team recently, with five players going down with season-ending injuries in the last three games.

Thirds put up a good fight against solid opposition. A three goal third term highlighted the game, as Liam Weir finished the game with that number of goals. Joining Weir in the best was Bryson Savage, Dustin Blackshaw, Will Robinson, James Maslen and Callum Nash.

Bit of a step back for the fourths, who lost a game no one really saw coming. Scores were relatively even at halftime, before Leongatha piled on five goals to one in the third to set up a match-winning lead. In a match between a Moe team inside the top five and a Leongatha team outside, the final margin of 22 points left some confusion in the camp. Darcy Walsh, Lucas Earl, Keller Holmes, Mason Snowden, Davide Polimeni and Michael Hasthorpe got the votes.

Over on the netball court, A Grade continued their winning ways, getting the job done over Leongatha 61 to 39. Liv Barnett was prominent, in a best-on-court display.

B Grade lost a competitive game, in a final scoreboard reading 43-37. Alyssa Anderson did a good job, as did Katie Blacksahw in C Grade's 30 to 10 loss.

In junior stakes, the 13s had a thrilling one-goal win, led by Summah Nash and Harper de Dios. Better players in the 17s were Hayley Koot and Memphis Walton, while in the 15s, Layna Hale and Mia Taylor stood tall.
