GIPPSLAND LEAGUE UPDATE

Season 2024 is here and we take a look at how the Warragul & Drouin Gazette writer Nick Duck has the clubs faring leading into the new season.

Bairnsdale

2023: 7th (five wins, one draw, 12 losses)

Another year of growth is the goal for Bairnsdale, whose bevy of recruits last year saw them jump from two wins in 2022 to five and a half last year.

The Redlegs began their season well, claiming two and a half wins from their first three matches before a drop-off saw them taste victory just three more times for the year.

A win against perennial top five side Traralgon provided a late highlight for the year but the name of the game will be maintaining the rage for longer.

Arrivals include Wy Yung regulars Mitch Toms and Nick Ward, Old Scotch teammates Ton Blenheim and Cooper Harvey and key defender Hugh Longbottom, while veteran vice captain John Gooch departs for Lucknow.

Led by playing coach Logan Austin once again, keeping competitive with the league's best will be a mark of success.

Drouin

2023: 10th (two wins, 16 losses)

Notable ins: Eddie Morris, Mitch Cotter, Ryan Quirk, Caleb Quirk, Kyron Smith

Notable outs: Hugo Birks, Bailey Stephens, Aaron Pawel, Rhys Salter, Cambell Jolly

Drouin will be heading into an interesting year for the club development-wise.

The Hawks may have ended 2023 with just two wins to their name and a wooden spoon to boot - the same as 2022 - but there was no doubting they were a much improved side.

In terms of recruiting, Hawks fans will be delighted to see the return of gun midfielder Eddie Morris. Morris, who is coming back from his time playing in the Northern Territory, will provide an instant injection of class around the ball and leadership to the relatively young list.

Also worthy of note is Mitch Cotter, a tough inside midfielder who has spent much of his recent years playing for Norwood in the SANFL.

The return of ruckman Tom Johnstone will free up Tim Hancock to hold down the fort at full forward and former Nar Nar Goon youngster Kyron Smith may provide support, but for Drouin to score consistently it's certainly going to have to be a team effort. With a midfield that now bats deep and options around the ground, the expectation is for the club to make a jump up the ladder.

Finals may be a step too far but another wooden spoon would be an abject failure. Optimism is growing that the Hawks could surprise a few sides this year.

Get things right and they might even surprise themselves.

Leongatha

2023: 3rd - premiers (15 wins, three losses)

It was business as usual for the Parrots in 2023, coming from third to win yet another premiership in what is becoming a predictable affair.

The club's class once again shone through when it counted and you'll be hard pressed to go past them for another tilt at the major prize again.

Warragul's own Cooper Alger joins the green and gold, providing plenty of class fresh off his first selection in the Gippsland League team of the year.

He'll help to cover the losses of senior campaigners Aaron Heppell - who will travel for most of the year - and Josh Hopkins. Though both have been serious contributors to this mighty team, the Parrots' ability to cover and adapt year to year has been one of their greatest strengths.

They're the team to beat for the flag until proven otherwise.

Maffra

2023: 8th (four wins, one draw, 13 losses)

The Eagles are in full swing of a rebuild at the moment. They're a far cry from the tremendous premiership-calibre side of the past few decades, but in footy you can't stay on top forever.

Encouraging signs from their young brigade were plain to see, though they struggled to keep up with the league's best, particularly late in the year as they tired. Maffra stalwart James Huts leaves for Boisdale-Briogolong, while Rosedale pair James Moulton and Joel Bristow come in, along with ex-VAFA player Brodie Tahara.

The Eagles aren't likely to be a finals threat, but don't be shocked if they spring an upset or two on an unwary opponent.

Moe

2023: 2nd (16 wins, two losses)

It's been an exodus from the Lions in the off-season after another finals campaign ended in heartbreak.

The longest drought in the league continued as the Lions put up a fine home and away season only to fall in preliminary final week.

Grady Cocksedge, Ben Morrow, Lucas Fry and forward Billy Gowers are just some of the names that won't be pulling on the maroon, gold and blue this season, leaving coach Declan Keilty plenty to ponder. Ex-GWS defender Tim Golds joins the ranks to provide some class and depth, although it will be worth keeping an eye on the Lions to see if they can get themselves back up into premiership contention again.

Morwell

2023: 6th (seven wins, 11 losses)

A disappointing 2023 had Morwell missing out on finals one year after making a stunning run to the Gippsland League's post-season. The Tigers never really got going last year, showing glimpses of their exuberant, free-flowing late-2022 form without being able to put it together.

They have plenty of upside at Tigerland, they just have to put the pieces together.

The Tigers have gone tall in their recruiting, including 6'3" forward Tom Smith from Surfers Paradise, the athletic Harri McColl from Yinnar and young Traralgon ruckman Harvey Howe.

Versatile star Tristen Waack's departure will hurt, while experienced campaigners Darnell Grech and Adam Braendler have shipped off after one season, but much of the core of the Tigers is intact enough to give the top five another shake.

Expect them to be fighting for finals once again.

Sale

2023: 5th (10 wins, eight losses)

A bit of a down year for the Magpies following grand final heartbreak in 2022 has them one of the more interesting prospects coming into this season.

Injuries played havoc with Sale's line-up for most of the year, though they managed to limp into finals without making much impact. They've lost a few in a raid by neighbour club Sale City, including Daine McGuinness, Kane Martin and Jackson Glenane, as well as Cooper Whitehill.

Former Richmond player Derek Eggmolesse-Smith comes in to bring some class, as does returning speedy utility Kyle Simpson. Like a lot of top sides the Magpies have suffered some losses, but retain enough top-end talent to remain a significant threat.

Traralgon

2023: 4th (11 wins, seven losses)

Troy Hamilton takes the reins as coach of Traralgon this year, and no doubt the first item on his agenda will be how to replace Brett Eddy as he leaves for Pearcedale. The high flying full forward kicked 139 goals across his two years in the maroon and white. That's the kind of output that will be tough to replicate. Luckily for Traralgon former Rookie of the Year Tristen Waack has joined the team, headlining their off season moves.

GIPPSLAND LEAGUE UPDATE

Still, the Maroons could have been accused last year of being too reliant on Eddy to win games, so his departure could provide opportunity for others to step up. Regular senior star Tom Schneider follows Eddy to Pearcedale, while Billy Schilling also departs. Traralgon-Tyers United's Liam Willaton comes in, as does former VFL player Chance Doultree, but the Maroons will be a watch for this year. Can they recover from their losses, or will 2024 be a bit of a reset for the league's most successful club?

Warragul

2023: 9th (three wins, 15 losses)

Notable ins: Jack Lewsey, Isaac Wallace, Thomas Crole

Notable outs: Cooper Alger, Will Cole, Corbin Sutherland, Liam Sumner

It's tough to get much of a read on Warragul as season 2024 draws closer. You won't see many sides cruelled by injuries more than the Gulls last season.

Some weeks it was easier to list the players actually available than the ones on the injury list. Headlining the recruits is Jack Lewsey, a solidly built player who arrives from Claremont in the WAFL.

Lewsey, who played 92 games for the Tigers and was their vice-captain last year as a rebounding defender, provides an instant boost of both leadership and quality to the Gulls' top-end talent.

Joining Lewsey is Isaac Wallace. Wallace comes to the Gulls as an inside bull through the midfield, making the prospect of him and Tom Hobbs - who is fully fit and "raring to go" - joining forces an intimidating one.

The Gulls have also looked to shore up their forward line with the addition of Neerim-Neerim South's Thomas Crole.

The young forward will give the team a different look up forward, having played regular senior football for the Cats.

In terms of losses to the list, Warragul will have a few to cover. The headline is that of Cooper Alger after the damaging half back made a move to reigning premiers Leongatha over the summer.

Alger, who famously made the Gippsland League team of the year last season after recovering from permanent blindness in one of his eyes, will be a significant loss for the Gulls. 2023 leading goalkicker Corbin Sutherland also departs following a single season in the red and black, while much loved Gull Will Cole has headed off to Garfield following an injury-interrupted year.

Wonthaggi

2023: 1st - runners-up (16 wins, two losses)

A first place finish wasn't enough for the Power to claim their maiden Gippsland League premiership as they found themselves the bridesmaid once again on grand final day. Before that point the Power looked like the frontrunner for the flag, going into the grand final on a 16-game win streak.

Memories of the grand final - and the way they failed to fire a shot early - are no doubt fuelling them over the off season. Tristan Francis joins Collingwood premiership player Jarryd Blair at the helm. The two will need to find ways to cover the potential losses of best and fairest winner Ryan Sparkes and forward livewire Jack Hutchinson, who both have found their way to Blair's old club, albeit on the VFL list.

Also gone for the season are regular contributors like Brodie Mabila, Jordan Staley and Kyle Reid.

Local recruits Noah Martin and Brayden Duve from the West Gippsland league will provide some cover, as do Cameron Ogden and Darren Patmore, but it will be interesting to see how removing arguably the Power's two best players will affect them should Sparkes and Hutchinson get game time for the Magpies. The Power remain one of the frontrunners for the flag, but anything other than a premiership might leave fans wondering if last year was the best chance they'll get.

LOGAN AUSTIN - BAIRNSDALE FWD

The Red Legs coach is a star of the competition. Can play at either end and dominate the game. The former Port Adelaide and St Kilda defender looks set to play forward in 2024 and may just be one of the leading goalkickers at seasons end.

JACK LESLIE - SALE RUC

Perennial team of the year ruckman since rejoining the competition after years on Gold Coasts list and in the VFL. Leslie started in defence in 2023 but found his form returning to the ruck in the second half of the season. Booming kick and imposing presence on the field.

EDDIE MORRIS - DROUIN MID

The former Top 50 number 1 returns to the Gippsland League after spending time in the Northern Territory. Was one of the stars of the NTFLL Premier division and should fit right back in as one of Gippsland League's best.

WILL MITCHELL - BAIRNSDALE MID

Bairnsdale's ball magnet sits comfortably in the top players in the competition. Averaged nearly 35 touches a game in 2023 while leading the clearance count. We don't expect much to change in 2024.

JACK JOHNSTONE - SALE MID

The Sale coach is still one of the best players in the competition. A competitive midfielder that can play forward or behind the ball, his form will be key to where Sale end up in 2024.

TOP 50

- PRESEASON 2024

SHANNEN LANGE - SALE

MID

Starts 2024 as the number one ranked player in the League again. Won the 2023 League best and fairest after claiming the 2021 award and 2022 League MVP. Star player, racks up plenty of the football and hits the scoreboard.

TOM MARRIOTT - LEONGATHA

MID

Lange and Marriott again occupy the top 2 spots. Marriott was the 2022 League best & fairest and was a star in the 2023 grand final claiming another best on ground medal in the Parrots back to back titles. A clear pick up the top of this list.

RILEY BALDI - MOE

MID

An explosive onballer, only his VFL commitments in 2023 kept him from claiming the League best & fairest award. Was one of the players of the finals and with a full year expected ahead at Moe, Baldi will be one of the League's top players for 2024.

TYE HOURIGAN - TRARALGON

DEF

The newly appointed Traralgon captain has solidified himself as one of the League's best players. Would be a star in any competition, he is the what every team is looking for as a tall that can play anywhere on the ground. Expect to see him leading the intercept mark tally at seasons end.

DECLAN KEILTY - MOE

DEF

The former Melbourne Demon, Moe's coach and leader is one of the most influential players in the competition. Was tagged as a key back in last years finals series, showing the importance of his game to the Lions. Injury free he is one of the top players in the League.

6 SHARNI LAMBDEN - LEONGATHA MID

The only question is how many games will she play? Lambden would be a 1-2 player if a full Gippsland League season was ahead. Former Melbourne Vixen playing in the National Competition, she is one of the best at state level representing Casey in the VNL Championships division.

7 OLIVIA BARNETT - MOE DEF

Star young defender, Barnett was arguably the best player in last years Grand Final win. A breakout 2023 saw her establish herself as one of the premier defenders at Gippsland League level whilst also becoming a main stay in the Hawks VNL lineup

8 ALISON DWYER - BAIRNSDALE DEF

Star defender will give Bairnsdale another boost coming into season 2024. Appointed in the leadership group for the Gippsland Stars, Dwyer will be one to watch this year. Tough defender that should be the Red Legs best this season and one of the best in the competition.

9 ALEX MOODY - MOE MID

Moody is one of the perennial best mid courters in the competition. Had a huge 2022 which saw her in the team of the year and top players in the League medal. Another VNL star at Southern Saints, expect her to be one of the best in the Gippsland League again.

10 NICOLA MARRIOTT - LEONGATHA MID

Past League MVP and best & fairest, Marriott is one of the best players to watch in the League. She will be one of the key players again for Leongatha and expect her to feature well again in the League awards.

TOP 25

SIENNA GREEN - WARRAGUL

MID

A super player and talent in the Gippsland League. Fit and athletic she plays across the mid court and we expect her to take another leap this year. Ended 2023 as the runner up for the League medal and with Warragul expected to be one of the contenders, expect her to be there again in 2024.

GEORGIA MOODY - MOE

GOAL

A two time Gippsland League premiership player that also features in the Championship division at State League for the North East Blaze. A star goaler that can either be a volume shooter or facilitator, we are tipping Moody to be one of the best players in 2024 in Moe's quest to go back to back.

EMMA RYDE - WARRAGUL

GOAL

One of the best shooters in the state, Ryde comes to Warragul with experience in the National Competition at Adelaide and Melbourne. She currently is one of the top shooters in the State League Championship division and shot over 1000 goals in club netball in 2022. Only question is how many games will she play?

RAMAYER GOURLEY - MOE

GOAL

Last years Shooting Star award winner was also named best on court in the Grand Final. Still one of the prominent players at Melbourne Uni Lightning in the State League Championship division, Gourley will again lead the way as coach of the Lions in 2024.

STACIE GARDINER - DROUIN

GOAL

The Hawks coach returns after a year off having a baby. One of the most decorated players in League history, Gardiner was also a State League Championship division goaler in 2022. Expect her to come back as hungry as ever with the Hawks set to challenge again in 2024 led by Gardiner.

5 years ago ... 6th April, 2019

Drouin made a perfect start to season 2019 with a fifteen point win against Traralgon. This victory ended an 18 game winning streak that the Maroons had established against the Hawks. Crucial to their win was the third quarter where they extended a two point advantage out to eighteen points. Joe Collins and Harry Wans starred for the victors. Sale trailed Bairnsdale for most of the day before edging out the Redlegs by three points. Moe won comfortably over Morwell, Joel Bragagnolo and Tom Long leading a strong defensive unit for the Lions. Wonthaggi was too strong for Warragul and Leongatha repeated the dose of the 2018 Grand Final with another hard fought win over Maffra.

10 years ago ... 5th April, 2014

Morwell showed that they were going to go hard in defending their crown with a strong win over Wonthaggi. After a dour first half, the Tigers kicked eleven goals to three after the break, Ben Kearns their best with four goals. Pundits wondered how Maffra would fare with both Burgiel brothers now departed. They answered with a powerful display at home against Moe. Owen Booth controlling the ruck and Daniel Beddgood (5 goals) on top up forward. Sale came from behind against Traralgon, kicking six goals to two in the final term to run out 21 point winners. Bairnsdale won comfortably against Leongatha, but errant kicking for goal (9.20.74) cost them some early percentage. Warragul won the Western Derby against Drouin, led superbly by onballers Chris Carey and Brad Scalzo.

20 years ago ... 3rd April, 2004

A match of high scoring and amazing accuracy, with a heart-stopping finish, highlighted the opening of season 2004 when Wonthaggi travelled to Morwell. Morwell led by five points at quarter timer and then slammed on seven goals to the Blues' six to go in at half time with a lead of ten points. Wonthaggi had seemingly put the result to rest when they kicked eight third quarter goals to one to open up a 33 point lead. Murray Silver was unstoppable with eleven goals, seven of which came in the first half. Morwell then came home with eight goals to finish just three points short. Sale broke away from Traralgon in the final quarter to win by 15 points and Leongatha had 44 scoring shots to Moe's 15 in winning by 89 points, coach Paul Hudson kicking six majors. Maffra had the bye.

PAST ROUND 1s

30 years ago ... 16th April, 1994

The season opened with high level discussions of the revamping of the Gippsland Region. Key to this was the adding of Wonthaggi, Drouin and Pakenham to create a 12 team Gippsland Football League. With this in motion the LVFL 1994 season opened rather predictably, Morwell and Bairnsdale having big wins over Churchill and Maffra. However, Warragul's win over Traralgon and Moe going down to Leongatha weren't in everyone's tips. Warragul coach Andrew Pratt led from the front, ably supported by Chris Masterson and four goals from forward John Mulqueen. Defender Gary Webster and mid-fielder Ken Fleming stood out for Leongatha, while big men Geoff Pritchard and Ken Rainsford were Moe's best. Sale had the bye.

40 years ago ... 17th April, 1984

Churchill joined the LVFL, bringing the number of teams up to twelve, however Warragul's eleven goal second term spoiled their debut, the Gulls cruising to an 83 point victory. A remarkable 46 goal game was played at Tyers where the TTU, bottom in 1983 played Newborough who finished ninth. Ron Cox kicked 12 goals for the Bulldogs who won by 54 points. Another goal fest, with 47 goals kicked, saw Morwell beat Yallourn/Yall.Nth by 13 points, while Bairnsdale and Moe won hard fought contests against Leongatha and Maffra respectively. Traralgon sat atop the ladder with a comfortable win over Sale.

If ever a team kicked away a chance of premiership points, it was Bairnsdale in the opening of the 1974 season when they had 29 scoring shots to Leongatha's 17, yet still lost the match by three points. The final quarter saw Leongatha held scoreless as the Redlegs scored an incredible 2.11. Traralgon and Warragul had comfortable wins over Yallourn and Morwell, Moe escaped from a fast finishing Sale and Heyfield came from ten points down at three quarter time to take the points from Maffra.

Today's Season Opener, brought forward from Round 3, will draw huge interest as both teams will field line-ups quite different to those from last season.

That said, three of those eight wins have been by single figure margins, two of which could quite easily gone Traralgon's way. Leongatha looks to have maintained almost all of its Senior list, while Traralgon may take some time to settle in with a number of changes in key positions.

GIPPSLAND ALL STARS UPDATE

The Dahlsens Gippsland All Stars will return for 2024, providing young footballers in Gippsland a representative program to promote and develop their talents.

Dahlsens will continue as the major partner of the program for season 2024 & 2025. Their backing will help ensure that the region's football pathways are supported from juniors through to Coates Talent League with Gippsland Power. The Gippsland All Stars program features the talented junior footballers of Gippsland for age groups Under 13, Under 14 and Under 15 across four regions Eastern, Latrobe, Southern and Western.

“Dahlsens are proud to once again be major sponsor of the Gippsland All Stars. We are a great believer in the importance of community sport, for not only providing a valuable and healthy outlet for young sportsmen and women, but for bringing together families and enriching the wider community. The Gippsland All Stars program is a standout in this respect,” said Geoff Dahlsen, Dahlsens.

The program was established in 2021 by AFL Gippsland with six core regions and has been streamlined over the past few years and now enters its fourth season thriving. With the restructure of AFL Gippsland, the program operations and administration has been transitioned to the Gippsland League who will administer the program from 2024 onwards to continue giving the Gippsland region's junior players and coaches development and pathway opportunities leading into V/Line Cup and the Gippsland Power programs. Gippsland Power will be partnering with the program next year which will provide additional development prospects for the coaches in the program along with other opportunities that will be announced closer to the season.

GIPPSLAND STARS UPDATE

In a landmark moment for netball in Gippsland, the Gippsland League has secured a licence to operate a team in the Victorian Netball League (VNL). The Gippsland Stars will join the competition from 2024 in the newly created 23 & Under division before entering both the Championship and 23 & Under divisions in future seasons. As Victoria's premier netball competition, the VNL provides a pathway for talented athletes to develop and showcase their abilities

By Gee By Jingo By Crikey. From a Fan's point of view, you'd have to say Easter Saturday footy was a roaring success. Both teams had a great following on the day plus a fair few onlookers. Thanks to Traralgon FNC for supporting Opening Round. It was a great day and promotion for the Club, Gippsland League footy and the East Gippsland region in general. Huge thanks to all our volunteers on the day and in the lead-up.

The development game was great to watch. It was a close game with good ball movement. With both teams creating plenty of opportunities to win, we got our noses in front with a couple of minutes to go and held on for an anxious 1pt win.

It was also a great result for our U15's who broke clear of Traralgon in the 3rd qtr to go on to a strong 15 goal win.

Our A's had a strong showing with the Maroons getting a break in the 3rd and our 1's kept at it all day with momentum swinging throughout the game but were over-run in the last.

Thanks and well done to Link McKenna who plays his 150th Club game today. He started in our Sunday Juniors and has been a mainstay of our senior line-up where he's approaching 100 games.

Thanks & congrats also to Oscar Clarke who plays his 50th Club game today and also Heidi Allen who played her 50th Club game last week.

Today we welcome Drouin to the City Oval and a chance to reset and start again.

Small things (we call them the 1%ers) done consistently over an extended period of time create exponential results. The compounding effect - each small thing builds on the other. It requires commitment, persistence, resilience, positivity, standards, team work & a bit of guts.

These are all things Redlegs have in spades.

Good luck to all players and teams.

We head over to the Valley for our opening round match up against Traralgon Football Netball Club this weekend where both clubs will be looking forward to start the season on a good note. Traralgon always field very strong teams across the board, so it sets up to be a fantastic challenge for all 10 Leongatha Teams.

Some social events have been planned for the year to put into the calendar; 4th May – Cabaret Ball (Tickets can be purchased online – follow links on facebook page) and there will be more to come.

This year I thought it would be a good idea that we meet and celebrate some of the fantastic volunteers around the club so each week I will choose a volunteer at Leongatha FNC to interview for the record. This week I have caught up with the best timekeeper in the Gippsland League Tim Mackie

Name: Tim Mackie

Occupation: Spare parts at Burchell Panels

AFL club supported: Gold Coast Suns

Best moment at LFNC: Timekeeping the 2017 Grand Final

All-time favourite LFNC player: Too many to mention

What singer/band would you like to see perform at the LFNC Cabaret Ball: Either The Chats, King Stingray or Amyl & The Sniffers

If Rhett was to call upon you to fill in for the Reserves for a week, where would you play and why? Full back, as that would be best suited to me

If you won the lottery, what would you buy first: A house

Least preferred household chore: Changing bedsheets

Three influential people you would like to share a meal with: Jim Jefferies, Brian Johnson and Joey Chestnut

Favourite food from the canteen: Chips and gravy (with a bit of mustard and vinegar mixed in)

MAFFRA

The Maffra Football Netball Club kicks-off its 2024 season with a home fixture against Sale to renew our famous Battle of the Birds rivalry. From a football perspective, the Eagles welcome Henry Anderson, Caleb Calwyn, Caleb Sullivan, Josh Cresswell and Dan Tocher into the fold for 2024. The club will also look to its younger ranks or provide opportunity to those looking to make the step up from reserves football. A pre-season hit out against Sale City provided insight into players who look ready to make that jump. We wish club stalwart Dave Adams all the very best in his 200th senior game for the club and look forward to celebrating that milestone with he and his family this week. Awesome achievement Dave!

FOOTBALL

The U16s and Thirds will be attempting to emulate their tremendous efforts and results from last year. The fourths played a remarkable 2023 season, dropping just three games on their way to a brilliant premiership. Adrian Burgiel will again coach what looks to be another talented side. The team hopes its recent form against Sale will continue in our opening fixture, claiming victories in both hit-outs last season.

Similar to their younger counterparts, the Maffra Under 18 squad will take a lot of confidence from 2023, where they too won a hard-earned premiership, coming from fourth on the ladder. Moving the magnets this year will be Chris Smart, while we congratulate Elliot Stables on his appointment as Eagles' U18 Captain. If the side's 2023 fixtures against Sale are anything to go by, spectators are in for another combative outing.

For the reserves, Kal Killoran will step up to coach in 2024, with last year's leading goal-kicking Jesse Oldham named captain. Both will be looking to maintain standards and bridge the gap between their side and current premiers Leongatha.

Anthony Robbins (Coach) and Daniel Bedgood (Captain) will lead a young Maffra seniors side this season. Maffra had over a dozen players make their senior debut in 2023, and while the club will look to remain competitive, there will still be plenty of opportunity to get games into our future club champions. We congratulate Max Stobie, Noah Christy and Zac O'Keefe on their selection into this year's Under 18 Gippsland Power squad and wish them all the best for the season.

NETBALL

Netball is back and we are ready to go for season 2024! We welcome all our new players and families to the club as well as our returning players and their families. With a great pre-season behind us we are looking forward to seeing our teams back out on the court for season 2024.

With an experienced and dynamic coaching panel of: Staci Scott (A Grade & 17s), Bec Berry (B Grade & 15s), Bree Burgiel (C Grade) and Lauren Daly (13s), our netballers are in very good hands. Thank you all for once again lending your time and expertise to the red and black this year. Some new faces to our A Grade team as well as some returning faces, the girls are excited to hit the court. B Grade have some changes and are looking to end up higher on the ladder this year. C Grade are looking to go back-to-back! Our junior development program is in full swing and under the trusted guidance of our coaches, things are looking great.

Madi Gras Success

A massive congratulations to Kade Renooy on winning the Maffra Mardi Gras recently, with a massive total of $30,239.80 raised!

An absolutely amazing effort from Kade and his team to raise that amount in just six weeks!

Thanks so much to everyone who attended our events and supported the Mardi Gras fundraising in anyway and those that have helped out along the way - it's greatly appreciated! Well done to the Maffra Cricket Club on their efforts too! An amazing achievement and the club could not be prouder of Kade! Congratulations!

Stick around after our first home game for live music by Leeroy Live from 7:00pm.

Good luck to all football and netball teams today and for the year.

MOE

WELCOME all Moe FNC families, players, members, sponsors and supporters to another season.

Our first game today sees us at home, taking on Morwell, who we extend a warm welcome to.

The familiar sight and sounds of country football and netball will permeate today, providing the soundtrack for the next six months.

The A Grade netball Grand Final rematch headlines the action, while a new-look senior football team is sure to carry some intrigue for those watching on.

Congratulations once again to our A Grade team, who brought home the flag last season in commanding fashion. The achievement was given its full stop a fortnight ago, when the premiership flag was presented at the league's launch. We are sure the flag will find pride of place somewhere up on the wall in the rooms.

Moving into 2024, and borrowing from the great Bob Dylan might be appropriate: "The times they are a-changin".

It is certainly looming as a new era for the club in more ways than one. At the end of last season, we said farewell to three great servants in Tom Long, Ben Morrow and James Blaser. The trio have all given virtually more than 200 games of service, and we wish them well in their undertakings this year.

Ben has taken on an assistant coaching role with Yallourn Yallourn North, who we have partnered with for the season. Your Moe membership will get you into YYN games and vice-versa, so if there is ever a spare weekend and a game in North Gippy, be sure to head down to the Rock.

Congratulations are due to Ben and Tom, as well as our current senior football captain Jacob Wood, who were all inducted as Moe FNC Life Members last year.

It would be remiss not to mention our longest serving president as well, Manny Gelagotis, who also stepped down at the end of last season after an incredible 10 years at the helm.

Coming into the top job is respected clubman Matt 'Tezmo' Howlett, who is passionate about all things Moe FNC.

On the senior football field, Declan Keilty comes in for his third season as playing-coach. Rob Raymond takes on the hardest job in football coaching the Development team, taking over from Aaron Wilson who did it for four years (equivalent to 20).

Ash Stubbs will again coach A Grade, as well as B Grade, while club legends Jane Van den Dolder and Lisa McIntosh-Shields will oversee C Grade.

Junior teams have been putting in the hard yards over preseason, and will be eager to get onto the field and court today.

Ted Summerton Reserve is looking immaculate, and fingers crossed it can hold true for the season.

Elsewhere, our AFL boys Bailey Humphrey and Sam Flanders are going great guns at Gold Coast, along with Morwell's Ben Ainsworth. To have three locals at the one AFL club is certainly a great success story and massive coup for the area.

Best wishes to all teams for the season.

It's also great to see Julian Blackford back to the club, he'll be looking after our Development side and will be assisted by Zac Cantrill. New junior coaches Luke Phillips and Jai Makepeace have been putting in a power of work and we look forward to seeing our juniors develop in season 2024. With pre season all done we can't wait for today's game against rivals Moe which we know always is a tough encounter across all grades!

SALE

The Sale Football Netball Club is excited for the 2024 season to kick off – we have recruited well in the off season – we will be led again by Jack Johnstone as our senior football coach along with Rach Ronaldson as our new A Grade coach. Rach is doing amazing things with our playing group; we look forward to watching her change/develop the group we have.

The vibe around the club is positive, with all coaches having a great repour on & off the field/court.

A slight shake up in the Netball department in the off season, due to a survey being held amongst the playing group, we now have a collective running the netball department and these many hands have made the season look so easy thus far. We welcome back our netball coaches in Julie Gerrand B Grade, Kara Wheeler / Danielle Anstee C Grade, Tash Bedggood / Jordan Sigley u17s, Janelle Stothers / Tracey Grubb u15s & Candice Johnson u13s.

Sam Anstee is leading the Football department from the front with securing Pete Morrison as our 2s coach/Chairman of selectors, and Jarrod Freeman u18s and Rod VanderVoort u16s, with Shane Fyfe and Luke Collins assisting Jack Johnstone with the senior playing group.

We also welcome Jack Leslie and Shannen Lange to the coaching panel again for 2024.

Today we travel to Maffra Football Netball Club for our annual 'Battle of the Birds' round 1 clash, we are looking forward to the strong rivalry that both clubs always bring.

Thank you to McDonalds & RW Coulthard as our major sponsors again for the 2024 season. Also, without the continued support of ALL our sponsors, the club wouldn't be in the financial position it is in.

We will be hosting our Annual SFNC Beer Pong / iPod shuffle function Rd 2 v Warragul 13th April, so get your partners ready & songs in – always a super fun event...

TRARALGON

Welcome to all TFNC members and supporters to 2024 Gippsland League season.

The entire club has worked tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure that this season is one to remember and as a club, we are excited about the season to come and believe that we have what it takes to succeed.

We have welcomed several new faces to our coaching panel in both men's and youth girls' football and netball:

Seniors:	Troy Hamilton
U16s:	Adam Jaensch
Youth Girls:	Andrew Jenkins
A Grade:	Amy Harrison
C Grade:	Karen Locandro
U15s:	Kasey Guttridge
U13s:	Sarah Blythman

We also welcome back Trent Anderson, Danny Campbell, Fi Morrow, and Brooke Adams who will remain with their teams from last season. Best of luck to all coaches and their teams this year.

A lot of questions remain when it comes to the rebuild of our flood-damaged rooms. We will continue to work with Latrobe City Council to keep the ball rolling. Some things are out of our control, but a lot of progress has been made and we remain optimistic that we will eventually have a fantastic facility for our athletes and members. For the time being, our temporary arrangements will remain which is less than ideal, but we must remember that our Maroons spirit is stronger than the four walls we occupy and our determination to succeed will prevail.

We cannot begin the season without acknowledging the tremendous support of our sponsors. In addition to our existing sponsors coming onboard once again, we have obtained quite a few new sponsors and we are extremely fortunate to have their backing. Without our sponsors, we couldn't provide the resources and opportunities to our athletes that we do, so thank you.

Our success is not just measured by the number of wins we accumulate, but also by the impact we make in our community. We are driven to ensure that our athletes and members have a positive experience at our club, and that we can provide a safe space for the people in our community. We believe that our success is not only ours but also for the people we represent.

Our season begins with a trip down the highway to Bairnsdale to take on the Redlegs in the Season Opener. Good luck to all involved; drive safe and have a Happy Easter!

GO MAROONS!
