

Media & Photography Policy

Inside the Fence at Gippsland League Matches

Identification and Attire:

Photographers must wear the designated blue vest provided by the league at all times while inside the fence area.

Photographers must have their Gippsland League Season Pass on them at all times whilst taking photographs at Gippsland League Matches.

Registration:

All photographers will not be permitted inside the fence on matchday during the match without registration to the Gippsland League

Positioning and Movement:

Photographers are permitted to sit inside the boundary fence during play but must not be positioned behind the goals, or within the team bench or interchange area.

Photographers are allowed to position themselves in appropriate locations that do not disrupt the match or its participants, ensuring minimal interference or distraction.

Behavior and Conduct:

Respect for players, officials, and spectators is paramount. Photographers should conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times.

Flash photography is not permitted during play and must not distract players or officials.

Safety and Liability:

Photographers enter the fence area at their own risk

The league holds no liability for any injuries sustained or equipment damage incurred by photographers inside the fence area.

Media Rights and Usage:

Photographs taken during Gippsland League matches may be used for editorial purposes only, including news coverage and league promotion.

Any commercial use or sale of photographs requires prior consent from the Gippsland League.

Compliance and Enforcement:

Gippsland League reserve the right to enforce these regulations and may revoke photographer access if deemed necessary.

These rules and regulations are designed to ensure a safe and professional environment for photographers while maintaining the integrity of Gippsland League matches.

Photographers are expected to familiarize themselves with and adhere to these guidelines for the duration of their access to the fence area

Official Gippsland League Media Vest

Vests must not be redistributed to any personnel without written consent from the Gippsland League.

